SWAP DI INTERESSI

Il Fondo ha contratto accordi per “swap di interessi” in cui le controparti si scambiano i rispettivi impegno di pagamento o incasso di interessi su uno specifica cifra nominale di riferimento. Queste cifre sono calcolate e riservate ogniqualvolta il NAV è calcolato. Gli interessi in credito sono compresi nella voce “Interessi in credito” della Dichiarazione degli attivi netti e gli interessi in debito sono compresi nella voce “Altri passivi” della Dichiarazione degli attivi netti.

CREDIT DEFAULT SWAPS

Il Fondo ha contratto accordi di tipo “Credit Default Swaps” volti a trasferire tra le parti l’esposizione al rischio di credito degli strumenti a reddito fisso. L’ammontare del reddito fisso scambiato con un reddito legato all’evoluzione degli eventi relativi al credito di un indice o obbligazione è calcolato e tenuto in conto ogniqualvolta è calcolato il NAV.

PERFORMANCE SWAPS

Il Fondo ha stipulato contratti di “Performance swap” in cui due parti stipulano un accordo in base al quale le due parti si scambiano flussi di cassa basati sulla performance di un indice o di un'azione di riferimento per la durata specificata dell'accordo. Gli importi degli interessi pagati o ricevuti vengono calcolati e contabilizzati ogni volta che viene calcolato il NAV.

INFLATION SWAPS

Il Fondo ha concluso operazioni di "Inflation swap", vale a dire contratti che offrono la differenza tra un livello d'inflazione, applicato a un dato importo nominale concordato ad avvio contratto, e un tasso d'interesse fisso applicato allo stesso importo nominale. Queste cifre sono calcolate e riservate ogniqualvolta il NAV è calcolato.

19 STRUTTURA MASTER-FEEDER

Amundi Funds Global Bond Flexible

L'obiettivo del Comparto Amundi Funds Global Bond Flexible è quello di conseguire una combinazione di reddito e incremento di capitale (rendimento totale).

In particolare, il Comparto investe in un fondo feeder in Amundi Oblig Internationales (fondo master) che cerca di offrire una performance (dopo le commissioni applicabili) superiore al JP Morgan Global Government Bond Index Broad su un determinato periodo di 3 anni.

Il fondo master investe principalmente in obbligazioni OCSE e obbligazioni convertibili. Gli investimenti possono comprendere titoli garantiti da mutui ipotecari (MBS) e titoli garantiti da attività (ABS).

In particolare, il Comparto investe almeno l'85% del suo patrimonio netto in azioni del fondo master (Classe Y).

Amundi Oblig Internationales è una SICAV di diritto francese e si qualifica come un fondo master ai sensi della direttiva 2009/65/CE.
Il fondo master investe fino al 100% in:
- obbligazioni emesse o garantite da paesi membri dell'OCSE;
- obbligazioni investment grade e obbligazioni convertibili emesse da società che hanno sede, o eseguono la loro attività economica principale, nell'OCSE,
- titoli garantiti da MBS e ABS aventi rating AAA (S&P) o Aaa (Moody) al momento dell'acquisto e declassati non sotto AA o Aa2 quando detenuti.
I mutui sottostanti i MBS possono essere commerciali o residenziali, e i MBS possono o meno venire con qualche forma di supporto governativo del credito.
L'esposizione del fondo master a obbligazioni convertibili contingenti è limitata a un 10% del patrimonio netto.
Il fondo master gestisce attivamente la propria esposizione ai tassi di interesse e ai mercati valutari.
Nel rispetto delle politiche di cui sopra, il fondo master può investire inoltre in strumenti del mercato monetario, depositi e, fino al 10% del suo patrimonio netto, in OICVM/OIC.
Il fondo master fa un ampio uso di derivati per ridurre vari rischi, per una gestione efficiente del portafoglio e come un modo per acquisire un'esposizione (lunga o corta) a vari asset, mercati o altre opportunità di investimento (compresi i derivati incentrati sul credito e cambio).

Il fondo master potrà perfezionare delle operazioni di acquisizioni e cessioni temporanee di titoli (pronti contro termine e pronti contro termine inversi).

Il reddito netto dal fondo master è sistematicamente distribuito e le plusvalenze nette realizzate dal fondo master sono sistematicamente reinvestite o distribuite ogni anno, a seconda di quanto determinato dalla società di gestione del fondo master.

Il team di investimento del fondo master utilizza una vasta gamma di posizioni strategiche e tattiche, tra cui l'arbitraggio tra i mercati del credito, dei tassi di interesse e valutario, nell'assemblaggio di un portafoglio altamente diversificato.

Il gestore degli investimenti dei due Comparti è Amundi (UK) Limited.

Il giudizio di revisione sul bilancio annuale del Fondo Master al 30 giugno 2025, senza modifiche, include un richiamo di informativa riguardante la valutazione dei titoli russi a seguito dell'invasione dell'Ucraina da parte della Russia il 24 febbraio 2022.

Amundi Funds Euro Bond Income

Amundi Funds Target Coupon è stato convertito in Amundi Funds Euro Bond Income ed è stato separato dal suo Master Amundi Revenus il 16 maggio 2025.

L'obiettivo del Comparto Amundi Funds Euro Bond Income è quello di conseguire una combinazione di reddito e incremento di capitale (rendimento totale). In particolare, il Comparto investe come fondo feeder in Amundi Revenus (fondo master). Il fondo master e, di conseguenza, il Comparto sono prodotti finanziari che promuovono le caratteristiche ESG ai sensi dell'articolo 8 del Regolamento sull'Informativa.

Il fondo master investe principalmente in strumenti di debito (obbligazioni e strumenti del mercato monetario) di qualsiasi tipo emessi da governi o società a livello mondiale e denominati in una delle valute dell'OCSE, diversificando tra valute e mercati azionari.
In particolare, il Comparto investe almeno l'85% del suo patrimonio netto in azioni del fondo master (Classe OR). Il Comparto può investire fino ad un 15% in depositi e derivati che vengono utilizzati solo a fini di copertura.

Amundi Revenus è un FCI di diritto francese e si qualifica come un fondo master ai sensi della direttiva 2009/65/CE.
Il fondo master investe almeno il 70% del suo patrimonio netto in strumenti di debito. Il fondo master può investire in
- obbligazioni sotto-investment-grade (obbligazioni ad alto rendimento),
- obbligazioni corporate subordinate (comprese le obbligazioni convertibili contingenti fino al 50% del patrimonio netto) e
- fino al 20% del patrimonio netto in titoli garantiti da mutui ipotecari (MBS) e titoli garantiti da attività (ABS).

Il fondo master può inoltre investire in azioni di società di qualsiasi tipo di capitalizzazione e settori in tutto il mondo. L'esposizione del fondo master al mercato azionario può variare dallo 0% al 20% del patrimonio netto, e la sua esposizione al mercato valutario può variare dallo 0% a 100% del patrimonio netto.

Il fondo master può anche investire fino al 10% del patrimonio netto in OICVM/OIC.
Il fondo master fa un ampio uso di derivati per ridurre vari rischi, per una gestione efficiente del portafoglio e come un modo per acquisire un'esposizione (lunga o corta) a vari asset, mercati o altre opportunità di investimento (compresi i derivati incentrati sul credito).
Il fondo master potrà perfezionare delle operazioni di acquisizioni e cessioni temporanee di titoli (pronti contro termine e pronti contro termine inversi).
L'ammontare del reddito distribuito verrà stabilito annualmente dalla società di gestione del fondo master in base ai rendimenti attesi delle attività in portafoglio.
Il fondo master non compara le proprie prestazioni a un indice in particolare.

Il team di investimento del fondo master cerca di sfruttare i premi di rendimento da un ampio universo di investimento (principalmente obbligazioni), utilizzando un approccio di gestione flessibile e che si basa su scelte ad alta convinzione. Analizza il tassi di interesse e le tendenze economiche (top-down) per identificare le strategie, i paesi e le classi di attività che appaiono suscettibili di offrire i migliori rendimenti adeguati al rischio. Il team di investimento utilizza quindi sia l'analisi tecnica sia l'analisi fondamentale, compresi premio per il rischio e analisi del credito, per selezionare i titoli in base alla loro capacità di generare reddito (bottom-up) e di costruire un portafoglio altamente diversificato in grado di fornire un rendimento regolare.

Inoltre, il fondo master cerca di ottenere un punteggio ESG del suo portafoglio superiore a quello del suo universo di investimento.

Il gestore degli investimenti dei due Comparti è Amundi Asset Management.

22 COMMISSIONI DI RICEZIONE E TRASMISSIONE DI ORDINI

Le commissioni di ricezione e trasmissione di ordini vengono:
- pagate a Amundi Intermediation o a Amundi (UK) Ltd, per i loro servizi resi ai Comparti gestiti da Amundi che consistono nella centralizzazione degli ordini e nella contribuzione alla loro migliore esecuzione.
- maturate su base giornaliera e pagate trimestralmente sulla base delle operazioni gestite da parti correlate di Amundi

Comparata con un gestore dell'investimento che realizza operazioni da solo, la centralizzazione dell'ordine permette di negoziare prezzi migliori con i broker, grazie ad un volume crescente di operazioni, di avere accesso a un numero maggiore di broker e di informazioni sui mercati, di avvantaggiarsi del know-how di specialisti commerciali e di trading controller specializzati.
Tali commissioni sono imputate alla voce "Commissioni di ricezione e trasmissione di ordini" sulla Dichiarazione di operazioni e modifiche agli attivi netti.

23 OPERAZIONI CON PARTI CORRELATE

Le parti correlate, in qualità di broker, possono effettuare operazioni o investire in valute o altri prodotti finanziari per conto di ciascun Comparto per il quale la parte correlata agisce da broker o per conto proprio o come controparte per i propri clienti, ivi compresi quei casi in cui le parti correlate o i clienti di queste sono in grado di effettuare transazioni per conto proprio allo stesso momento che per conto di ciascun Comparto. Le transazioni elencate nella tabella sono state inserite come attività commerciale regolare e in normali termini commerciali.
Il Fondo ritiene che le commissioni, i premi e le riduzioni pagabili alle parti correlate siano concorrenziali, sebbene è nell'interesse della parte correlata ottenere tassi di commissione vantaggiosi, insieme ai premi e alle riduzioni per ciascun Comparto.
Nel corso dell'anno sono state effettuate da dette parti correlate transazioni per un totale di EUR 22,472,959,393.32 ovvero 8.77% del totale delle transazioni effettuate in detto periodo, da tali parti correlate. Durante il periodo chiuso il 30 giugno 2025, Amundi Funds ha effettuato transazioni con le parti correlate per un totale di:

26 SWING PRICING

Nei giorni di valutazione in cui ritiene che la negoziazione delle azioni di un Comparto richieda acquisti o vendite significativi di investimenti di portafoglio, il Consiglio di amministrazione può adeguare il NAV del Comparto per riflettere più fedelmente i prezzi effettivi delle transazioni sottostanti, sulla base degli spread di negoziazione stimati, dei costi e di altre considerazioni di mercato e di negoziazione. In generale, il NAV sarà adeguato al rialzo in presenza di una forte domanda di acquisto di azioni del comparto e al ribasso in presenza di una forte domanda di rimborso di azioni del comparto. Tale adeguamento viene applicato a tutte le operazioni del Comparto in un determinato giorno, quando le richieste nette superano una certa soglia stabilita dal Consiglio di amministrazione. Tali adeguamenti perseguono l'obiettivo di proteggere gli Azionisti a lungo termine della SICAV dai costi associati alle attività di sottoscrizione e rimborso in corso e non sono destinati a risolvere le circostanze specifiche di ogni singolo investitore. Per un determinato Giorno di valutazione, l'aggiustamento non sarà di norma superiore al 2% del NAV, ma il Consiglio di amministrazione può aumentare questo limite se necessario per proteggere gli interessi degli azionisti.
Gli importi degli swing effettuati per l'esercizio chiuso al 30 giugno 2025 sono iscritti nella "Dichiarazione di operazioni e modifiche agli attivi in "sottoscrizioni/rimborsi netti".

27 TITOLI VALUTATI AL FAIR VALUE

In conformità ai principi contabili applicabili, i titoli possono essere valutati al loro valore di realizzo probabile ragionevole, determinato con cura e in buona fede dal Consiglio di Amministrazione. La presente nota fornisce una panoramica di tali titoli valutati al fair value qualora tali informazioni possano ragionevolmente influenzare le decisioni economiche degli utilizzatori del bilancio.

Titoli russi

A seguito dell'invasione russa in Ucraina del 24 febbraio 2022 e del suo impatto sui mercati e sui titoli russi, il Consiglio di amministrazione e la Società di gestione hanno deciso, a partire dalla fine di febbraio, di rivedere costantemente e di valutare equamente le azioni (compresi gli ADR/GDR) e le obbligazioni russe.
La valutazione al fair value tiene conto dei regimi sanzionatori in vigore e del loro impatto sulla negoziabilità e sul processo di regolamento dei titoli in questione.
Al momento della stesura della presente relazione, il processo di valutazione al fair value di detti titoli è ancora in corso.

Atento S.A.

Atento S.A. è un fornitore multinazionale di servizi di gestione delle relazioni con i clienti e di outsourcing dei processi aziendali, fondata nel 1999, con sede a Madrid e costituita in Brasile, con una significativa presenza storica in America Latina. L'azienda offre servizi di assistenza clienti, vendita, supporto tecnico, analisi e back office in diversi settori, tra cui telecomunicazioni, servizi finanziari, commercio al dettaglio, sanità e settore pubblico. Il 21 luglio 2023 le azioni ordinarie di Atento sono state sospese dalle negoziazioni alla Borsa di New York e successivamente delistate; la società è attualmente soggetta a un piano di ristrutturazione. Quando non erano disponibili prezzi di mercato osservabili per determinati titoli Atento, tali strumenti sono stati valutati al fair value utilizzando un approccio basato sul valore intrinseco. Le valutazioni riflettono la struttura del capitale della società e includono adeguamenti per la liquidità e il rischio di credito associato agli strumenti.

Amundi Funds

Opinione

Nella nostra opinione, i bilanci allegati forniscono un'immagine fedele e completa della posizione finanziaria di Amundi Funds (il "Fondo") e di ciascuno dei comparti al 30 giugno 2025, e dei risultati delle operazioni e delle modifiche agli attivi netti per l'anno chiuso in tale data, conformemente ai requisiti legali e normativi lussemburghesi in relazione alla preparazione e presentazione dei bilanci.

Abbiamo revisionato

I bilanci del Fondo comprendono:
• lo stato patrimoniale al 30 giugno 2025;
• la dichiarazione di operazioni e modifiche agli attivi netti per l'esercizio chiuso in tale data;
• il portafoglio titoli al 30 giugno 2025, e
• le note alle dichiarazioni finanziare, che comprendono un riepilogo delle politiche di contabilità più significative.

Opinione

Questa è stata condotta in conformità alla Legge del 23 luglio 2016 sulla professione della revisione contabile (Legge 23 luglio 2016) e agli standard internazionali sulla revisione contabile (ISA) adottati per il Lussemburgo dalla "Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier" (CSSF). In conformità alla legge 23 luglio 2016 e agli ISA adottati per il Lussemburgo dalla CSSF, la nostra responsabilità è quella descritta nella sezione "Responsabilità del 'Réviseur d'entreprises agréé' per la revisione contabile dei bilanci" della nostra relazione.

Riteniamo che le prove ottenute dalla revisione costituiscano una base sufficiente e idonea al fine di generare una nostra opinione.

Siamo indipendenti rispetto al Fondo, in conformità al Codice etico internazionale per i contabili professionisti, inclusi gli Standard internazionali di indipendenza, emesso dell'International Codice for Accountants (codice IESBA), adottato per il Lussemburgo dalla CSSF e ai principi in materia di etica rilevanti per la nostra revisione contabile. Abbiamo adempiuto alle nostre altre responsabilità etiche in conformità a detti requisiti etici.

Osservazione

Richiamiamo l'attenzione sulla Nota 1 del presente bilancio, in cui si indica che il Consiglio di amministrazione del Fondo ha deciso di sospendere il calcolo del valore patrimoniale netto, l'emissione, il riscatto e la conversione delle azioni del comparto Russian Equity a partire dal 28 febbraio 2022 a seguito delle continue tensioni geopolitiche e delle sanzioni imposte alla Russia che hanno reso impossibile la negoziazione o la valutazione della maggior parte degli attivi del comparto. Il nostro parere non è stato modificato in merito a questa questione.

Altro

Il Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo ha la responsabilità delle informazioni supplementari. Le informazioni supplementari comprendono le informazioni incluse nella relazione annuale, ma non includono i bilanci e la nostra relazione di revisione degli stessi.

Il nostro parere sul bilancio non copre le altre informazioni e non esprime opinione alcuna su dette informazioni.

In relazione alla nostra revisione contabile del bilancio, la nostra responsabilità consiste nel leggere le altre informazioni sopra indicate e, in tal senso, valutare se le altre informazioni contengono importanti incoerenze rispetto ai rendiconti finanziari o ai dati da noi acquisiti nel corso della revisione contabile, o sembrano contenere inesattezze rilevanti. Se, in base al lavoro da noi svolto, concludiamo che esistono inesattezze rilevanti all'interno di queste altre informazioni, è nostro compito riferirlo. Non abbiamo alcuna osservazione a questo proposito.

Il Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo ha la responsabilità di preparare e illustrare in maniera equa i bilanci in conformità ai requisiti legali e normativi lussemburghesi in relazione alla preparazione e presentazione dei bilanci e di mettere in atto i controlli interni che il Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo ritenga necessari al fine di consentire la stesura di bilanci privi di inesattezze rilevanti, siano essere dovute a frode o ad errore.

Nella stesura dei bilanci, il Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo è responsabile della valutazione del normale funzionamento del Fondo e di ciascuno dei suoi comparti, rivelando, se del caso, eventuali elementi concernenti detto normale funzionamento e utilizzando il presupposto della continuità aziendale, salvo il Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo intenda liquidare il Fondo o chiudere uno dei suoi comparti o cessare le operazioni, o non vi sia nessuna alternativa realistica in questo senso.

Responsabilità del "Réviseur d'entreprises agréé" per la revisione contabile dei bilanci

Lo scopo della nostra attività di revisione è ottenere ragionevole conferma che i bilanci, nel loro complesso, siano privi di inesattezze rilevanti, dovute a frode o errore, ed emettere una relazione di revisione che includa il nostro parere. La ragionevole conferma è un alto livello di conferma, ma non rappresenta una garanzia che l'analisi condotta in conformità alla legge del 23 luglio 2016 e agli ISA adottati per il Lussemburgo dalla CSSF sia sempre in grado di individuare un'inesattezza rilevante. Le inesattezze possono derivare da frode o errore e sono considerate rilevanti se, individualmente o complessivamente, si potrebbero ragionevolmente considerare che le stesse possano influenzare le decisioni economiche degli utenti adottate in base a questi rendiconti finanziari.

Nell'effettuare la revisione contabile in conformità alla Legge del 23 luglio 2016 e agli ISA adottati per il Lussemburgo dalla CSSF, esercitiamo il dovuto giudizio e scetticismo professionale per l'intera revisione.

Inoltre ci incarichiamo di:

• identificare e valutare il rischio che i conti annuali contengano inesattezze rilevanti imputabili a irregolarità o errori, definire e porre in essere procedure di audit in risposta a detti rischi, ed ottenere elementi probatori sufficienti e adeguati su cui basare la nostra opinione. Il rischio di non identificare inesattezze rilevanti imputabili a frode è maggiore rispetto a quello risultante da errori, dato che la frode può comportare collusioni, falsificazioni, omissioni intenzionali, false dichiarazioni o l'elusione di controlli interno;

• ottenere una conoscenza dei controlli interni pertinenti nell'ambito della revisione contabile, al fine di definire procedure di revisione appropriate alle circostanze specifiche, ma non allo scopo di esprimere un'opinione sull'efficacia del controllo interno del Fondo;

• emettere una valutazione sull'adeguatezza dei criteri contabili utilizzati e sulla plausibilità delle stime contabili effettuate e delle relative informazioni divulgate dal Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo;

• stabilire l'adeguatezza dell'utilizzo del presupposto della continuità aziendale da parte del Consiglio di Amministrazione del Fondo e, sulla base delle evidenze ottenute nel corso dell'audit, l'eventuale presenza di una significativa incertezza relativa ad eventi o condizioni che possano comportare l'insorgere di seri dubbi sulla capacità del Fondo o di uno qualsiasi dei suoi comparti di garantire una continuità aziendale. Se giungiamo alla conclusione che esistono delle incertezze significative, nella nostra relazione di audit dobbiamo richiamare l'attenzione sulle relative informative fornite a livello di bilancio o, qualora tali informative siano inadeguate, modificare la nostra opinione. Le nostre conclusioni si basano sulle evidenze di revisione ottenute fino alla data della nostra relazione di revisione dei conti. Tuttavia, futuri eventi o condizioni potrebbero far sì che il Fondo o uno qualsiasi dei suoi comparti interrompa il suo normale funzionamento;

• valutare la presentazione complessiva, la struttura e il contenuto del bilancio, comprese le informative, nonché la capacità dei bilanci di rappresentare le operazioni e gli eventi soggiacenti in modo tale da ottenere una presentazione attendibile e trasparente.

Tra l'altro, comunichiamo agli incaricati della governance l'estensione e la periodicità della revisione, nonché le rilevazioni significative nel corso dell'audit, comprese eventuali carenze significative nel controllo interno identificate durante la nostra analisi.

Abbiamo fornito ai responsabili delle attività di governance anche una dichiarazione attestante che abbiamo rispettato le norme e i principi in materia di etica e di indipendenza, e abbiamo comunicato loro ogni situazione che possa ragionevolmente avere un effetto sulla nostra indipendenza e, ove applicabile, le azioni intraprese per eliminare le minacce o le misure di salvaguardia applicate.

Tutte le transazioni sono transazioni bilaterali.
I comparti rispettano costantemente il vincolo "La liquidità ricevuta come garanzia dei contratti OTC e pronti contro termine, deve essere superiore alla somma dei depositi presso istituti di credito, gli investimenti in titoli di Stato di alta qualità, operazioni di pronti contro termine inversi con istituti di credito e gli investimenti in fondi del mercato monetario a breve termine". La liquidità è gestita complessivamente; il processo di gestione degli investimenti non isola specificatamente la liquidità ricevuta come garanzia rispetto ad altre liquidità. Le garanzie concesse dai comparti nel contesto di pronti contro termine si mantengono in conti separati.
Gli interessi ricevuti e pagati nell'ambito di accordi di riacquisto inverso e accordi di riacquisto sono indicati nel Conto Economico e Prospetto delle Variazioni del Patrimonio Netto, per ciascun Comparto alle voci "Interessi ricevuti su Repo e Repo inversi" e "Interessi pagati su Repo e Repo inversi".

Tutte le transazioni sono transazioni bilaterali.
Per ogni controparte di ogni comparto, le posizioni di garanzia sono seguite globalmente per tutti i tipi di strumenti OTC.
La liquidità è gestita complessivamente; il processo di gestione degli investimenti non isola specificatamente la liquidità ricevuta come garanzia rispetto ad altre liquidità.
Nella valutazione degli swap sono stati inclusi i rimborsi e le spese sostenute da operazioni di swaps transactions nell'anno concluso al 30 giugno 2025.

POLITICHE E PRATICHE RETRIBUTIVE

La politica retributiva di Amundi Luxembourg S.A. è conforme ai requisiti specificati nella Direttiva Europea 2014/91/EU entrata in vigore il 18 marzo 2016, e recepita dalla normativa lussemburghese il 10 maggio 2016. La politica retributiva si basa sul quadro retributivo del gruppo Amundi ed è rivista annualmente ed approvata dal Consiglio di Amundi Luxembourg La politica è soggetta a revisione indipendente da parte dalla funzione interna incaricata del controllo di conformità.
Non sono state apportate ulteriori modifiche sostanziali alla politica retributiva adottata dagli anni precedenti, ma solo modifiche/precisazioni redazionali, principalmente per chiarire la soglia da utilizzare per il calcolo del differimento e per sottolineare la ricerca di un adeguato equilibrio tra retribuzione fissa e variabile.
La politica applicabile nel 2024 è stata approvata dal Consiglio Amministrazione di Amundi Luxembourg il 26 settembre 2024 La politica retributiva del gruppo viene rivista annualmente dal Amundi group Remuneration Committee. La revisione del 2024 si è svolta il 06 febbraio 2024.
La politica di remunerazione e gli obiettivi delle pratiche sono coerenti e promuovono una gestione sana ed efficace del rischio, allineando la remunerazione con prestazioni e rischi a lungo termine al fine di evitare conflitti di interesse. Le componenti della remunerazione fissa sono collegate alle funzioni ricoperte, ai servizi professionali prestati e alla portata delle responsabilità, riflettendo il livello di qualifica accademica, i livelli di retribuzione di mercato, l'esperienza e le competenze richieste per ciascuna posizione, nonché il livello di eccellenza dimostrato. La remunerazione variabile è concepita per promuovere uno sviluppo sostenibile a lungo termine della Società di Gestione nonché un sistema solido ed efficace di gestione del rischio.
La quota di remunerazione variabile tiene conto dell'andamento del dipendente, della sua business unit e del gruppo Amundi nel suo complesso, e si basa su criteri finanziari e non finanziari.
Amundi Luxembourg S.A. e il Gruppo Amundi hanno definito tutto il personale identificato dotato di autorità o influenza sui fondi gestiti da Amundi e che, di conseguenza, può avere un impatto sulla performance o sul profilo di rischio dei fondi.

REGOLAMENTO SULL'INFORMATIVA (DISCLOSURE).

Il 18 dicembre 2019, il Consiglio europeo e il Parlamento europeo hanno annunciato di aver raggiunto un accordo politico sul regolamento sull'Informativa, cercando così di stabilire un quadro paneuropeo per facilitare gli investimenti sostenibili. Il Regolamento sull'Informativa prevede un approccio armonizzato per quanto riguarda la divulgazione di informazioni relative alla sostenibilità agli investitori nel settore dei servizi finanziari dell'Area Economica Europea. Ai fini del regolamento sull'informativa, la Società di gestione soddisfa i criteri di un "partecipante ai mercati finanziari", mentre ogni Comparto si qualifica come "prodotto finanziario". Per ulteriori dettagli sulle modalità con cui un Comparto si conforma ai requisiti della Disclosure Regulation si rimanda al supplemento relativo al Comparto stesso. Si rimanda inoltre alla sezione 'Investimenti sostenibili' del Prospetto informativo del Fondo e alla Politica di investimento responsabile di Amundi disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Come richiesto dall'art. 11 del Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure), il Fondo rilascia le seguenti dichiarazioni: Nell'ambito della Politica di Investimento Responsabile di Amundi, Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio approccio di rating ESG. Il rating ESG di Amundi mira a misurare la performance ESG di un emittente, ossia la sua capacità di anticipare e gestire i rischi di sostenibilità e le opportunità inerenti al suo settore e alle singole circostanze. Utilizzando i rating ESG di Amundi, i gestori di portafoglio tengono conto dei rischi di sostenibilità nelle loro decisioni di investimento. Amundi applica politiche di esclusione mirate a tutte le strategie di investimento attivo di Amundi, escludendo le società in contrasto con la Politica di Investimento Responsabile, come quelle che non rispettano le convenzioni internazionali, i quadri riconosciuti a livello internazionale o le normative nazionali.

Questi Comparti hanno un obiettivo sostenibile e sono pertanto classificati come articolo 9, ai sensi del SFDR (Regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 del Parlamento europeo e del Consiglio, del 27 novembre 2019, sulle informazioni relative alla sostenibilità nel settore dei servizi finanziari). Pertanto, come previsto dall'articolo 58 del REGOLAMENTO DELEGATO DELLA COMMISSIONE (UE) 2022/1288, le informazioni dettagliate sulle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario sono disponibili in allegato alla presente relazione.

Questo allegato contiene informazioni su:
• Raggiungimento dell'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile del prodotto finanziario;
• Principali investimenti, asset allocation e percentuale degli investimenti in diversi settori e sottosettori economici;
• Informazioni sugli investimenti sostenibili.

Articolo 8 Comparti (richiesto Art.11.1)

I Comparti elencati di seguito sono classificati ai sensi dell'articolo 8 della Disclosure Regulation e mirano a promuovere caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali. Oltre ad applicare la Politica di investimento responsabile di Amundi, questi Comparti, ai sensi dell'articolo 8, mirano a promuovere tali caratteristiche attraverso investimenti che comportino un punteggio ESG del proprio portafoglio superiore a quello del rispettivo benchmark o universo d'investimento. Il punteggio del portafoglio ESG è la media ponderata in base all'AUM del punteggio ESG degli emittenti basato sul modello di punteggio ESG di Amundi.
Nel corso dell'esercizio in analisi, il Gestore degli investimenti ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali attraverso l'applicazione delle suddette metodologie.

■ Articolo 6 Comparti

In considerazione dell'orientamento degli investimenti e delle classi/settori di attività in cui investono, i gestori degli investimenti di tutti gli altri Comparti, non classificati ai sensi degli articoli 8 o 9 della Disclosure Regulation, non hanno integrato una considerazione delle attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale nel processo di investimento del Comparto. Pertanto si noti che gli investimenti sottostanti al Comparto non hanno tenuto conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Nel corso dell'esercizio finanziario, il Comparto ha preso in considerazione la PAI 14 attraverso lo Standard minimo e la Politica di esclusione di Amundi relativi alle armi controverse, escludendo gli emittenti che producono, vendono, immagazzinano o prestano servizi per le mine antiuomo e le bombe a grappolo, vietate dai trattati di Ottawa e Oslo, e gli emittenti coinvolti nella produzione, nella vendita o nell'immagazzinamento di armi chimiche, biologiche e all'uranio impoverito, come previsto dalla Politica globale di investimento responsabile di Amundi.

Informativa periodica per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 9, comma 1 a 4a, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 5, primo comma, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852

Nome del prodotto:
AMUNDI FUNDS MONTPENSIER GREAT EUROPEAN MODELS SRI

213800HTVMOYLUK1WB84

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Obiettivo di investimento sostenibile

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

[X] Oui	[ ] Non
[X] Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: 18.7% del patrimonio netto del fondo	[ ] Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del ___% di investimenti sostenibili
[X] in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	[ ] con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
[X] in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	[ ] con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	[ ] con un obiettivo sociale
[X] Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: 78.7% del patrimonio netto del fondo	[ ] Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

Una Società viene identificata come sostenibile dal gestore patrimoniale, applicando la metodologia descritta nella Politica ESG disponibile sul sito montpensier.com. Un'azienda può essere coinvolta in diversi SDG. È classificata dalla società di gestione come sostenibile dal punto di vista ambientale o sociale, in base al suo coinvolgimento nei principali SDG a cui la società di gestione l'ha associata.

In che misura è stato raggiunto l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile di questo prodotto finanziario?

Il fondo integra i fattori di sostenibilità nel proprio processo d'investimento, come indicato più dettagliatamente di seguito e nel capitolo "Strategia d'investimento" del Prospetto informativo.
I criteri ESG sono presi in considerazione dal fondo al fine di unificare la performance finanziaria e il desiderio di influenzare positivamente, quando possibile, l'emittente in termini di performance ESG, incoraggiando le società a migliorare l'integrazione dei criteri ESG nelle proprie attività e valorizzando le migliori pratiche.

La società di gestione ha applicato la politica descritta nel documento precontrattuale per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 9, paragrafi da 1 a 4 bis, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 5, primo paragrafo, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Il 100% del portafoglio investito, esclusa la liquidità e i mezzi equivalenti (ovvero il 97.36% del patrimonio netto del fondo), è costituito da investimenti sostenibili.

L'intensità media ponderata di carbonio e l'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio sono in linea con quelle del suo indice.

L'intensità media ponderata di carbonio del portafoglio risulta significativamente superiore a quella dell'indice quando si includono le emissioni Scope 3 Upstream, mentre l'impronta di carbonio rimane significativamente inferiore rispetto a quella dell'indice.
Ricordiamo che in precedenza lo Scope 3 Tier 1 teneva conto delle emissioni dei fornitori diretti del prodotto finale, mentre lo Scope 3 Upstream ha un ambito più ampio, che tiene conto delle emissioni legate al trasporto e alla distribuzione dei prodotti acquistati dall'azienda tra i suoi fornitori Tier 1 e le sue attività, oltre ad altri servizi quali la logistica in entrata, la logistica in uscita, il trasporto e la distribuzione tra i siti dell'azienda.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Gli indicatori utilizzati per dimostrare che il comparto ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali sono i seguenti:

Quota di investimenti conformi alla politica di esclusione di Montpensier Arbevel: 100%
Quota di investimenti con rating B o superiore (su una scala da CCC a AAA): 100%
Quota degli investimenti coinvolti in una controversia "Rossa" secondo MSCI 0%
Quota di investimenti soggetti alla metodologia ESG di Montpensier Arbevel: 100%

Rispetto del Global Compact: Peso delle società in portafoglio identificate come conformi ai principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Vedi sopra.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili non hanno arrecato danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

La valutazione del principio "Non arrecare un danno significativo" (Do Not Significantly Harm, DNSH) si basa su:

- La nostra Analisi SRI, Fase 1: esclusione delle società coinvolte in attività controverse: produzione di armi, estrazione di carbone, tabacco, intrattenimento per adulti, gioco d'azzardo, OGM e olio di palma.
- Fase 2, ossia l'esclusione delle società con rating "CCC" o "Red Controversy Vigilance" secondo MSCI ESG Research;
- Considerazione dei PAI (Principal Adverse Impacts) attraverso un approccio qualitativo nell'analisi SRI dei titoli. Gli indicatori relativi agli impatti negativi principali delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità sono elencati in appendice.

Inoltre, le società con un impatto ambientale o sociale MIA negativo, o pilastri A e S, sono considerate in deroga al principio DNSH.

Si rimanda inoltre al Prospetto informativo e al Documento precontrattuale SFDR allegato al prospetto dell'OICR, disponibili sul sito web della società di gestione.

Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati con le linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e con i Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

Escludiamo dal nostro universo d'investimento le società che non sono allineate con alcune norme e convenzioni internazionali, in particolare il Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite (UNGC), le linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali, l'Organizzazione Internazionale del Lavoro (OIL) e i Principi Guida delle Nazioni Unite su Imprese e Diritti Umani (UNGPBHR).
Le società che sono oggetto di una controversia "Rossa" sono escluse dall'universo d'investimento. Tra queste controversie "Rosse" si annoverano le aziende che non sono in linea con il Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite (Diritti Umani, Diritti del Lavoro, Ambiente e Corruzione).

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Teniamo conto dei principali indicatori di impatto negativo nella politica di esclusioni settoriali e normative, l'analisi delle buone pratiche di governance (utilizzando la Montpensier Governance Flag - MGF), l'analisi qualitativa esclusiva del contributo delle aziende alle transizioni ambientali e solidali (Montpensier Impact Assessment - MIA, Montpensier Industry Contributor - MIC), e/o nell'analisi delle eco-attività che determina il contributo a uno o più Obiettivi di Sviluppo Sostenibile (SDGs) delle Nazioni Unite.
La rilevanza e la copertura di questi indicatori nell'analisi variano a seconda del settore, dell'industria e della regione in cui opera ogni azienda.

Gli indicatori relativi agli impatti negativi principali delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità sono elencati in appendice.

Le informazioni sugli obiettivi ambientali, sociali e di governance (ESG) sono disponibili sul sito web della società di gestione:

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie;

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I dati relativi al coinvolgimento delle aziende nelle attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare, in linea con la tassonomia, sono determinati prendendo in considerazione solo i dati pubblicati dalle aziende.
Non sono ancora disponibili dati sul coinvolgimento delle aziende in attività di gas fossile e/o energia nucleare conformi alla tassonomia.

A titolo informativo, i titoli identificati come coinvolti nell'energia fossile e/o nucleare rappresentano il 5.09% del portafoglio, vale a dire il 5.09% del portafoglio per i titoli che derivano parte delle loro vendite dall'energia nucleare e il 0.00% per i titoli coinvolti nell'energia fossile.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- fatturato riflette la "ecocompatibilità" delle società partecipate oggi.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, rilevanti per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

Il fatturato è stimato da MSCI ESG Research in base alla metodologia descritta di seguito.
I dati CapEx e Opex tengono conto solo dei dati pubblicati dalle aziende.

La percentuale di allineamento con la tassonomia sopra indicata rappresenta il contributo del portafoglio in media ponderata all'allineamento alla tassonomia europea (in base al fatturato, CapEx od OpEx) di tutti gli investimenti sostenibili, che abbiano un obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Allineamento della tassonomia europea
L'allineamento della tassonomia europea è stimato da MSCI ESG Research in base alla percentuale massima dei ricavi di una società derivante da prodotti e servizi che perseguono obiettivi ambientali, sulla base del quadro MSCI Sustainable Impact Metrics.
La percentuale di vendite generate da prodotti e servizi che soddisfano gli obiettivi ambientali è ridotta a 0 per le aziende che non soddisfano i criteri "Non arrecare un danno significativo" e "Garanzie minime di salvaguardia sociale" della tassonomia europea. Lo stesso vale per i produttori di tabacco, per le aziende i cui ricavi derivano dalla fornitura, distribuzione o vendita al dettaglio di prodotti del tabacco in misura pari o superiore al 5%, nonché per le aziende coinvolte in armi controverse.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Il Comparto non prevede una quota minima di investimenti in attività transitorie o abilitanti.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

	30/06/2025	28/06/24	30/06/23
Allineamento alla tassonomia europea	% AUM	% AUM	% AUM
Great European Models SRI	4.1%	4.8%	7.5%

La percentuale sopra indicata rappresenta il contributo del portafoglio all'allineamento alla tassonomia europea (in base al fatturato) di tutti gli investimenti sostenibili, che abbiano un obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Alla data della presente relazione, il 18.7% del patrimonio netto era investito in investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale, mentre il 6.6% non era allineato alla tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

Alla data della presente relazione, il 78.7% del patrimonio netto era investito in investimenti sostenibili con finalità sociali.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "non sostenibile", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

La liquidità, i mezzi equivalenti e gli eventuali derivati di copertura rappresentano il 2.6% del patrimonio netto del fondo e non offrono garanzie ambientali o sociali minime.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per raggiungere l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile durante il periodo di riferimento?

La società di gestione ha applicato la politica descritta nel documento precontrattuale per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 9, paragrafi da 1 a 4 bis, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 5, primo paragrafo, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

La politica di coinvolgimento degli azionisti di Montpensier Finance consiste in una politica di voto e in una politica di coinvolgimento.

L'esercizio dei diritti di voto è un elemento importante del dialogo con gli emittenti. Incoraggia le migliori pratiche di governance e promuove l'etica professionale.
Montpensier Finance ritiene che l'esercizio dei diritti di voto sia parte integrante del processo di gestione degli investimenti e debba essere effettuato nel migliore interesse dei propri clienti. La politica dei diritti di voto di Montpensier Finance mira a promuovere la valutazione a lungo termine degli investimenti dei suoi fondi.

Per esercitare i diritti di voto connessi alle azioni detenute dal fondo, i gestori fanno riferimento ai principi relativi alle raccomandazioni di corporate governance pubblicati da ISS Governance, nella sua Politica di sostenibilità. L'ISS copre tutte le società presenti nei portafogli dei fondi gestiti da Montpensier Finance.
Le norme di conformità richiedono che i gestori di portafoglio svolgano le loro funzioni in modo indipendente, in particolare per quanto riguarda gli emittenti, e nell'interesse esclusivo delle quote / degli azionisti. I gestori di portafoglio prestano particolare attenzione alle delibere che possono pregiudicare gli interessi delle quote / degli azionisti.
La politica di voto completa e l'ultima relazione sull'esercizio dei diritti di voto sono disponibili sul nostro sito web.

Montpensier Finance integra la sua politica di voto con una politica di impegno.
I team di gestione dei fondi sono incoraggiati a sollevare qualsiasi preoccupazione con le società durante le riunioni, in particolare quando le questioni ESG sembrano non essere sufficientemente prese in considerazione, al fine di incoraggiare queste società a migliorare le loro pratiche in materia ambientale, sociale e di governance aziendale, tutti fattori di crescita sostenibile.
I gestori del fondo, coadiuvati dagli analisti ISR, instaureranno un rapporto positivo e costruttivo a medio-lungo termine con le società in portafoglio.
Questa relazione è poliedrica:
✓Comunicare alla società le intenzioni di voto dei gestori dei fondi prima dell'Assemblea generale.

Oltre alle iniziative di coinvolgimento diretto che di solito conduce direttamente con le Piccole e Medie Imprese, Montpensier Finance partecipa anche ad azioni di coinvolgimento collettivo implementate da ISS come parte del suo programma ISS ESG, in particolare per le società più grandi.

Questo dialogo è condotto con l'obiettivo di:
✓Incoraggiare le aziende a definire un impegno ESG;
✓Incoraggiare le aziende a comunicare le loro pratiche ESG.

La politica di coinvolgimento completa e l'ultima relazione sul coinvolgimento sono disponibili sul nostro sito web. L'ultimo rapporto di engagement è disponibile all'indirizzo:

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto al benchmark sostenibile di riferimento?

I benchmark di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario raggiunge l'obiettivo sostenibile.

Il fondo non utilizza un benchmark sostenibile. La sua performance di sostenibilità viene confrontata con il suo benchmark: Stoxx 600

Informativa periodica per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 9, comma 1 a 4a, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 5, primo comma, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852

Nome del prodotto:
AMUNDI FUNDS MONTPENSIER M CLIMATE SOLUTIONS

Identificativo della Persona Giuridica:

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Fondo tematico azionario globale, all caps, rivolto a società effettivamente coinvolte e in grado di generare un impatto reale nella transizione energetica ed ecologica per il clima.

In che misura è stato raggiunto l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile di questo prodotto finanziario?

Il fondo integra i fattori di sostenibilità nel proprio processo d'investimento, come indicato più dettagliatamente di seguito e nel capitolo "Strategia d'investimento" del Prospetto informativo.
I criteri ESG sono presi in considerazione dal fondo al fine di unificare la performance finanziaria e il desiderio di influenzare positivamente, quando possibile, l'emittente in termini di performance ESG, incoraggiando le società a migliorare l'integrazione dei criteri ESG nelle proprie attività e valorizzando le migliori pratiche.

La società di gestione ha applicato la politica descritta nel documento precontrattuale per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 9, paragrafi da 1 a 4 bis, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 5, primo paragrafo, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Il 100% del portafoglio investito, esclusa la liquidità e i mezzi equivalenti (ovvero il 97.47% del patrimonio netto del fondo), è costituito da investimenti sostenibili.

L'intensità media ponderata di carbonio e l'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio sono significativamente inferiori al proprio indice. Questa performance è attribuibile alla nostra forte sottoesposizione ai combustibili fossili.

L'intensità media ponderata di carbonio del portafoglio è superiore a quella del relativo indice quando si includono le emissioni Scope 3 Upstream. Ad esempio, le attività principali di alcune società presenti in portafoglio richiedono livelli relativamente elevati di logistica e trasporto di materiali e componenti, il che spiega l'aumento dell'intensità media ponderata di carbonio. Queste soluzioni contribuiscono anche alla transizione energetica, consentendo di risparmiare energia e ridurre le emissioni di carbonio in altri modi.
Ricordiamo che in precedenza lo Scope 3 Tier 1 teneva conto delle emissioni dei fornitori diretti del prodotto finale, mentre lo Scope 3 Upstream ha un ambito più ampio, che tiene conto delle emissioni legate al trasporto e alla distribuzione dei prodotti acquistati dall'azienda tra i suoi fornitori Tier 1 e le sue attività, oltre ad altri servizi quali la logistica in entrata, la logistica in uscita, il trasporto e la distribuzione tra i siti dell'azienda.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Gli indicatori utilizzati per dimostrare che il comparto ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali sono i seguenti:

Quota di investimenti conformi alla politica di esclusione di Montpensier Arbevel: 100%
Quota di investimenti con rating B o superiore (su una scala da CCC a AAA): 100%
Quota degli investimenti coinvolti in una controversia "Rossa" secondo MSCI 0%
Quota di investimenti soggetti alla metodologia ESG di Montpensier Arbevel: 100%

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Vedi sopra.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili non hanno arrecato danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

La valutazione del principio “Non arrecare un danno significativo” (Do Not Significantly Harm, DNSH) si basa su:

- La nostra Analisi SRI, Fase 1: esclusione delle società coinvolte in attività controverse: produzione di armi, estrazione di carbone, tabacco, intrattenimento per adulti, gioco d’azzardo, OGM e olio di palma.
- Fase 2, ossia l’esclusione delle società con rating “CCC” o “Red Controversy Vigilance” secondo MSCI ESG Research;
- Considerazione dei PAI (Principal Adverse Impacts) attraverso un approccio qualitativo nell’analisi SRI dei titoli. Gli indicatori relativi agli impatti negativi principali delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità sono elencati in appendice.

Inoltre, le società con un impatto ambientale o sociale MIA negativo, o pilastri A e S, sono considerate in deroga al principio DNSH.

Si rimanda inoltre al Prospetto informativo e al Documento precontrattuale SFDR allegato al prospetto dell'OICR, disponibili sul sito web della società di gestione.

Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati con le linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e con i Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

Escludiamo dal nostro universo d'investimento le società che non sono allineate con alcune norme e convenzioni internazionali, in particolare il Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite (UNGC), le linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali, l'Organizzazione Internazionale del Lavoro (OIL) e i Principi Guida delle Nazioni Unite su Imprese e Diritti Umani (UNGPBHR).
Le società che sono oggetto di una controversia “Rossa” sono escluse dall'universo d'investimento. Tra queste controversie “Rosse” si annoverano le aziende che non sono in linea con il Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite (Diritti Umani, Diritti del Lavoro, Ambiente e Corruzione).

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Teniamo conto dei principali indicatori di impatto negativo nella politica di esclusioni settoriali e normative, l'analisi delle buone pratiche di governance (utilizzando la Montpensier Governance Flag - MGF), l'analisi qualitativa esclusiva del contributo delle aziende alle transizioni ambientali e solidali (Montpensier Impact Assessment - MIA, Montpensier Industry Contributor - MIC), e/o nell'analisi delle eco-attività che determina il contributo a uno o più Obiettivi di Sviluppo Sostenibile (SDGs) delle Nazioni Unite.
La rilevanza e la copertura di questi indicatori nell'analisi variano a seconda del settore, dell'industria e della regione in cui opera ogni azienda.

Gli indicatori relativi agli impatti negativi principali delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità sono elencati in appendice.

Le informazioni sugli obiettivi ambientali, sociali e di governance (ESG) sono disponibili sul sito web della società di gestione:

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie;

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I dati relativi al coinvolgimento delle aziende nelle attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare, in linea con la tassonomia, sono determinati prendendo in considerazione solo i dati pubblicati dalle aziende.
Non sono ancora disponibili dati sul coinvolgimento delle aziende in attività di gas fossile e/o energia nucleare conformi alla tassonomia.

A titolo informativo, i titoli identificati come coinvolti nell'energia fossile e/o nucleare rappresentano il 5.09% del portafoglio, vale a dire il 5.09% del portafoglio per i titoli che derivano parte delle loro vendite dall'energia nucleare e il 0.00% per i titoli coinvolti nell'energia fossile.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- fatturato riflette la "ecocompatibilità" delle società partecipate oggi.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, rilevanti per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

 Ai fini dei grafici di cui sopra, per 'obbligazioni sovrane' si intendono tutte le esposizioni sovrane.*
Il fatturato è stimato da MSCI ESG Research in base alla metodologia descritta di seguito.
I dati CapEx e Opex tengono conto solo dei dati pubblicati dalle aziende.

La percentuale di allineamento con la tassonomia sopra indicata rappresenta il contributo del portafoglio in media ponderata all'allineamento alla tassonomia europea (in base al fatturato, CapEx od OpEx) di tutti gli investimenti sostenibili, che abbiano un obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Allineamento della tassonomia europea
L'allineamento della tassonomia europea è stimato da MSCI ESG Research in base alla percentuale massima dei ricavi di una società derivante da prodotti e servizi che perseguono obiettivi ambientali, sulla base del quadro MSCI Sustainable Impact Metrics.
La percentuale di vendite generate da prodotti e servizi che soddisfano gli obiettivi ambientali è ridotta a 0 per le aziende che non soddisfano i criteri "Non arrecare un danno significativo" e "Garanzie minime di salvaguardia sociale" della tassonomia europea. Lo stesso vale per i produttori di tabacco, per le aziende i cui ricavi derivano dalla fornitura, distribuzione o vendita al dettaglio di prodotti del tabacco in misura pari o superiore al 5%, nonché per le aziende coinvolte in armi controverse.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Il Comparto non prevede una quota minima di investimenti in attività transitorie o abilitanti.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

M Climate Solutions	39.1%	65.8%	67.5%

La percentuale sopra indicata rappresenta il contributo del portafoglio all'allineamento alla tassonomia europea (in base al fatturato) di tutti gli investimenti sostenibili, che abbiano un obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Alla data della presente relazione, il 97.5% del patrimonio netto era investito in investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale, mentre il 12.4% non era allineato alla tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

Alla data della presente relazione, lo 0.0% del patrimonio netto era investito in investimenti sostenibili con finalità sociali, sapendo che si tratta di un fondo tematico azionario globale, all caps, rivolto a società effettivamente coinvolte e in grado di generare un impatto reale nella transizione energetica ed ambientale per il clima.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "non sostenibile", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

La liquidità, i mezzi equivalenti e gli eventuali derivati di copertura rappresentano il 2.5% del patrimonio netto del fondo e non offrono garanzie ambientali o sociali minime.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per raggiungere l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile durante il periodo di riferimento?

La società di gestione ha applicato la politica descritta nel documento precontrattuale per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 9, paragrafi da 1 a 4 bis, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 5, primo paragrafo, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

La politica di coinvolgimento degli azionisti di Montpensier Finance consiste in una politica di voto e in una politica di coinvolgimento.

L'esercizio dei diritti di voto è un elemento importante del dialogo con gli emittenti. Incoraggia le migliori pratiche di governance e promuove l'etica professionale.
Montpensier Finance ritiene che l'esercizio dei diritti di voto sia parte integrante del processo di gestione degli investimenti e debba essere effettuato nel migliore interesse dei propri clienti. La politica dei diritti di voto di Montpensier Finance mira a promuovere la valutazione a lungo termine degli investimenti dei suoi fondi.

Per esercitare i diritti di voto connessi alle azioni detenute dal fondo, i gestori fanno riferimento ai principi relativi alle raccomandazioni di corporate governance pubblicati da ISS Governance, nella sua Politica di sostenibilità. L'ISS copre tutte le società presenti nei portafogli dei fondi gestiti da Montpensier Finance.
Le norme di conformità richiedono che i gestori di portafoglio svolgano le loro funzioni in modo indipendente, in particolare per quanto riguarda gli emittenti, e nell'interesse esclusivo delle quote / degli azionisti. I gestori di portafoglio prestano particolare attenzione alle delibere che possono pregiudicare gli interessi delle quote / degli azionisti.
La politica di voto completa e l'ultima relazione sull'esercizio dei diritti di voto sono disponibili sul nostro sito web.

Montpensier Finance integra la sua politica di voto con una politica di impegno.
I team di gestione dei fondi sono incoraggiati a sollevare qualsiasi preoccupazione con le società durante le riunioni, in particolare quando le questioni ESG sembrano non essere sufficientemente prese in considerazione, al fine di incoraggiare queste società a migliorare le loro pratiche in materia ambientale, sociale e di governance aziendale, tutti fattori di crescita sostenibile.
I gestori del fondo, coadiuvati dagli analisti ISR, instaureranno un rapporto positivo e costruttivo a medio-lungo termine con le società in portafoglio.
Questa relazione è poliedrica:
✓Comunicare alla società le intenzioni di voto dei gestori dei fondi prima dell'Assemblea generale.

Oltre alle iniziative di coinvolgimento diretto che di solito conduce direttamente con le Piccole e Medie Imprese, Montpensier Finance partecipa anche ad azioni di coinvolgimento collettivo implementate da ISS come parte del suo programma ISS ESG, in particolare per le società più grandi.

Questo dialogo è condotto con l'obiettivo di:
✓Incoraggiare le aziende a definire un impegno ESG;
✓Incoraggiare le aziende a comunicare le loro pratiche ESG.

La politica di coinvolgimento completa e l'ultima relazione sul coinvolgimento sono disponibili sul nostro sito web. L'ultimo rapporto di engagement è disponibile all'indirizzo:

In che misura è stato raggiunto l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile di questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio finanziario, il prodotto ha costantemente raggiunto il proprio obiettivo di investimento sostenibile, mirando a ottenere un punteggio ESG superiore rispetto al punteggio ESG del proprio universo di investimento BLOOMBERG EURO AGGREGATE CORPORATE 1-3 YEAR Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Il comparto ha mantenuto la quota impegnata della sua allocazione investita nell'uso di green bond.

L'obiettivo dei green bond è quello di finanziare progetti che generano un impatto positivo e misurabile sull'ambiente. L'indicatore chiave per misurare l'impatto dei green bond è "tonnellate di emissioni di CO2 evitate per milione di euro investiti in un anno". Al di là dell'analisi finanziaria quantitativa e qualitativa delle obbligazioni che probabilmente andranno a comporre il portafoglio, il processo di selezione comprende una valutazione della strategia ESG a livello di emittente e una valutazione dei green bond in base a diversi punti di analisi:

1. Amundi ha sviluppato un sistema esclusivo di punteggio ESG basato su una scala di sette lettere, che va da A a G, dove A rappresenta il rating migliore e G quello peggiore. Qualsiasi emittente con rating G è escluso da tutti i portafogli gestiti attivamente di Amundi. Implementiamo la verifica del rating ESG dell'emittente e controlliamo la conformità del rating ai criteri del relativo fondo. Come indicato in precedenza, gli emittenti con un rating G nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi non sono idonei all'investimento. In caso di punti deboli, il team di ricerca ESG cercherà di approfondire le controversie sul relativo pilastro (A, S e G).

2. Valutazione dei green bond in termini di: (i) analisi del progetto, attraverso l'analisi dell'ubicazione geografica degli asset, l'azione sugli asset, la valutazione di qualsiasi impatto aggiuntivo del progetto green sull'ambiente, sulla biodiversità, sulle comunità locali o su altri aspetti sociali (Do no significant harm, ovvero "non arreca un danno significativo"), l'allineamento agli standard di settore (ad esempio, l'allineamento ai Green Bond Principles dell'International Capital Markets Association, alla Climate Bond Initiative, alla Tassonomia UE). (ii) analisi dell'emittente a livello di strategia ESG globale e di controversie, (iii) logica di finanziamento green (tipo di progetti finanziati, allocazione dei green asset, tipo di strumenti di finanziamento dei progetti green) e (iv) trasparenza (rapporto sui green bond, esistenza di un parere di terze parti).

3. Monitoraggio continuo (investimento ex-post), che comprende l'esame regolare dell'allocazione e del rapporto sull'impatto del green bond, delle controversie in cui l'emittente è coinvolto e della strategia ambientale dell'emittente.

Infine, tutti i Green Bond selezionati dovranno soddisfare i criteri e le linee guida dei Green Bond Principles pubblicati dall'International Capital Market Association. Per maggiori dettagli su quanto sopra, si prega di visitare la Politica di investimento responsabile di Amundi.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.991 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.788 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

Alla fine del periodo, il portafoglio detiene 86.14 % di green bonds.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.118 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.799 (C).

Alla fine del periodo precedente, il portafoglio deteneva 89.79 % di green bonds.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili non hanno arrecato danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).

- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo ha un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile dal punto di vista ambientale. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 22.02% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[X] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

Il Fondo Master non investe in progetti di energia da gas fossile o nucleare. Le cifre riportate di seguito si riferiscono al livello dell'emittente, non a quello del progetto.
Tutti i progetti finanziati con fondi verdi sono conformi alla filosofia di investimento del nostro fondo. Tuttavia, il Comparto può investire in società che operano anche in questi settori. Tali investimenti possono essere o meno allineati alla tassonomia.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

 Ai fini dei grafici di cui sopra, per "obbligazioni sovrane" si intendono tutte le esposizioni sovrane.*

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.50%.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 72.64% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

Questo prodotto non si è impegnato ad effettuare investimenti sostenibili dal punto di vista sociale nel corso del periodo.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "non sostenibile", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per raggiungere l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile durante il periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura è stato raggiunto l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile di questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento BLOOMBERG MSCI GLOBAL GREEN BOND HEDGED INDEX (ESG). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Il comparto ha mantenuto la quota impegnata della sua allocazione investita nell'uso di green bond.

L'obiettivo dei green bond è quello di finanziare progetti che generano un impatto positivo e misurabile sull'ambiente. L'indicatore chiave per misurare l'impatto dei green bond è "tonnellate di emissioni di CO2 evitate per milione di euro investiti in un anno". Al di là dell'analisi finanziaria quantitativa e qualitativa delle obbligazioni che probabilmente andranno a comporre il portafoglio, il processo di selezione comprende una valutazione della strategia ESG a livello di emittente e una valutazione dei green bond in base a diversi punti di analisi:

1. Amundi ha sviluppato un sistema esclusivo di punteggio ESG basato su una scala di sette lettere, che va da A a G, dove A rappresenta il rating migliore e G quello peggiore. Qualsiasi emittente con rating G è escluso da tutti i portafogli gestiti attivamente di Amundi. Implementiamo la verifica del rating ESG dell'emittente e controlliamo la conformità del rating ai criteri del relativo fondo. Come indicato in precedenza, gli emittenti con un rating G nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi non sono idonei all'investimento. In caso di punti deboli, il team di ricerca ESG cercherà di approfondire le controversie sul relativo pilastro (A, S e G).
2. Valutazione dei green bond in termini di: (i) analisi del progetto, attraverso l'analisi dell'ubicazione geografica degli asset, l'azione sugli asset, la valutazione di qualsiasi impatto aggiuntivo del progetto green sull'ambiente, sulla biodiversità, sulle comunità locali o su altri aspetti sociali (Do no significant harm, ovvero "non arreca un danno significativo"), l'allineamento agli standard di settore (ad esempio, l'allineamento ai Green Bond Principles dell'International Capital Markets Association, alla Climate Bond Initiative, alla Tassonomia UE). (ii) analisi dell'emittente a livello di strategia ESG globale e di controversie, (iii) logica di finanziamento green (tipo di progetti finanziati, allocazione dei green asset, tipo di strumenti di finanziamento dei progetti green) e (iv) trasparenza (rapporto sui green bond, esistenza di un parere di terze parti).
3. Monitoraggio continuo (investimento ex-post), che comprende l'esame regolare dell'allocazione e del rapporto sull'impatto del green bond, delle controversie in cui l'emittente è coinvolto e della strategia ambientale dell'emittente.

Infine, tutti i Green Bond selezionati dovranno soddisfare i criteri e le linee guida dei Green Bond Principles pubblicati dall'International Capital Market Association. Per maggiori dettagli su quanto sopra, si prega di visitare la Politica di investimento responsabile di Amundi.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class".
I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.096 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.958 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

Alla fine del periodo, il portafoglio detiene di green bonds.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.212 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.935 (C) fine del periodo, il portafoglio deteneva 96.23 % di green bonds.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili non hanno arrecato danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Quali sono stati i principali investimenti di questo prodotto finanziario?

L'elenco comprende gli investimenti che costituiscono la quota maggiore degli investimenti del prodotto finanziario durante il periodo di riferimento, ossia: Dal 01/07/2024 al 30/06/2025

Maggiore Investimenti	Settore	Sottosettori	Paese	% Asset
ARI - IMPACT GREEN BOND - OR (D)	Finanziari	Fondi comuni di investimento	Francia	102.42%

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 97.78% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

L'asset allocation descrive la quota di investimenti in asset specifici.

#1 Sostenibile copre gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
#2 Non sostenibile include investimenti che non si qualificano come investimenti sostenibili.

- In quali settori economici sono stati effettuati gli investimenti?

Settore	Sottosettori	% Asset
Finanziari	Fondi comuni di investimento	102.42%
Forex	Forex	-2.40%
Cash	Cash	-0.03%

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo ha un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile dal punto di vista ambientale. Pur non avendo assunto l'impegno di effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento il fondo ha investito il 23.56% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.

La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[X] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

Il Fondo Master non investe in progetti di energia da gas fossile o nucleare. Le cifre riportate di seguito si riferiscono al livello dell'emittente, non a quello del progetto.
Tutti i progetti finanziati con fondi verdi sono conformi alla filosofia di investimento del nostro fondo. Tuttavia, il Comparto può investire in società che operano anche in questi settori. Tali investimenti possono essere o meno allineati alla tassonomia.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

1. Investimenti allineati alla tassonomia comprese le obbligazioni sovrane

	OpEx	CapEx	Fatturato

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.93%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 74.22% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

Questo prodotto non si è impegnato ad effettuare investimenti sostenibili dal punto di vista sociale nel corso del periodo.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "non sostenibile", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

Che azioni sono state intraprese per raggiungere l'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile durante il periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

Informativa periodica per i prodotti finanziari di cui all'articolo 8, commi 1, 2 e 2 bis, del regolamento (UE) 2019/2088 e all'articolo 6, primo comma, del regolamento (UE) 2020/852

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.31 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.234 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.243 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.171 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 38.36% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.04%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 26.82% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 11.22%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 32.11% di investimenti sostenibili
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.215 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.224 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.22 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.28 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.

- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 19.68% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 12.43%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Obiettivo di investimento sostenibile

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

●● [ ] Si	●○ [X] No
[ ] Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	[X] Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 86.15% di investimenti sostenibili
[ ] in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	[X] con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	[X] con un obiettivo sociale

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.240 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 1.072 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.174 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 1.03 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 5.75% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

 Ai fini dei grafici di cui sopra, per "obbligazioni sovrane" si intendono tutte le esposizioni sovrane.*

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.11% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 4.89%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 3.18%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 72.44% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 7.96%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Obiettivo di investimento sostenibile

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 72.10% di investimenti sostenibili
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.216 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.828 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.145 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.798 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 72.10% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

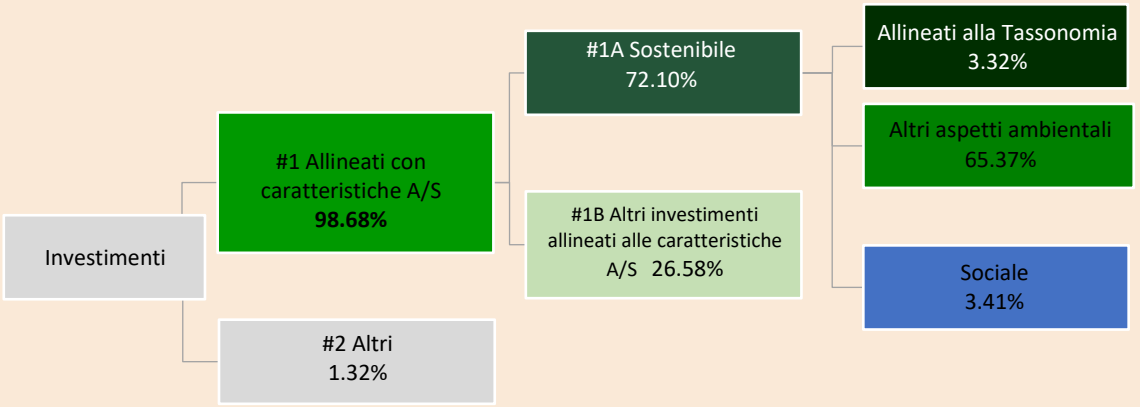
L'asset allocation descrive la quota di investimenti in asset specifici.



#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.

#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:

- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 3.32% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.40% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 3.94%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 1.57%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 65.37% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 3.41%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Obiettivo di investimento sostenibile

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Il prodotto è etichettato SRI (Investimento Sociale e Responsabile - Social and Responsible Investment). Nel corso dell'anno ha cercato di promuovere le 3 dimensioni (ambientale, sociale e di governance) tenendo conto del rating ESG degli emittenti nella costruzione del portafoglio.

Il rating ESG degli emittenti mira a valutare la loro capacità di gestire il potenziale impatto negativo delle loro attività sui fattori di sostenibilità. Questa analisi mira quindi a valutare i loro comportamenti ambientali e sociali in termini di governance, assegnando loro un rating ESG che va da A (rating migliore) a G (rating peggiore), in modo da ottenere una valutazione più globale dei rischi.

1. Il portafoglio ha applicato costantemente la seguente politica di esclusione di Amundi:
- Esclusioni legali di armi controverse
- Aziende che contravvengono gravemente e ripetutamente a uno o più dei 10 principi del Global Compact (UN Global Compac), senza misure correttive credibili;
- Le esclusioni settoriali del gruppo Amundi su carbone e tabacco (i dettagli di questa politica sono disponibili nella Politica di Investimento Responsabile di Amundi disponibile sul sito www.amundi.fr)
2. Non sono stati effettuati investimenti in emittenti con rating F o G. Per gli emittenti il cui rating è stato abbassato a F o G, i titoli già presenti in portafoglio sono stati venduti nei tempi previsti dal prospetto e tenendo conto degli interessi finanziari dei detentori.
3. Il punteggio ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è stato costantemente superiore al punteggio ESG medio ponderato dell'universo di investimento del fondo dopo aver eliminato il 20% degli emittenti peggiori.
4. Il fondo ha privilegiato gli emittenti che sono leader nel loro settore di attività secondo i criteri ESG identificati dal team di analisti extra-finanziari della società di gestione (approccio "best in class"). Ad eccezione delle esclusioni di cui sopra, tutti i settori economici sono rappresentati in questo approccio e l'UCI può quindi essere esposto ad alcuni settori controversi.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.948 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.665 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.962 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.673 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 8.41% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[X] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.45% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 7.47%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era del 5.83%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 46.75% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 17.61%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.215 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.920 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.185 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.906 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 5.35% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era del 2.67%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 64.47% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 9.81%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si

☒ No

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia dell'UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: ____

- ☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
- ☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE

☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 73.97% di investimenti sostenibili

- ☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
- ☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
- ☒ con un obiettivo sociale

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____

☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.032 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.828 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.914 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.798 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 3.13% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[X] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. - Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.09% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 2.82%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.65%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 60.36% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 10.48%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.138 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.798 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.188 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.77 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 17.44% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.17% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 11.13%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 13.85%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 52.47% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 14.14%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EUROPE VALUE (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.032 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.777 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.998 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.712 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Quali sono stati i principali investimenti di questo prodotto finanziario?

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. - Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.18% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 3.43%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.25%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 64.33% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 5.10%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EUROPE. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo.
Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.278 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.828 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 1.199 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.798 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 3.67% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.12% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 3.32%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 1.21%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 71.21% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 5.02%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EUROPE (16) SMALL CAP (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.760 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.546 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.756 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.528 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 64.06% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.

#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:

- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

L'asset allocation descrive la quota di investimenti in asset specifici.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.35% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 3.01%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 3.02%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 47.06% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 14.33%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Il prodotto è etichettato SRI (Investimento Sociale e Responsabile - Social and Responsible Investment). Nel corso dell'anno ha cercato di promuovere le 3 dimensioni (ambientale, sociale e di governance) tenendo conto del rating ESG degli emittenti nella costruzione del portafoglio. Il rating ESG degli emittenti mira a valutare la loro capacità di gestire il potenziale impatto negativo delle loro attività sui fattori di sostenibilità. Questa analisi mira quindi a valutare i loro comportamenti ambientali e sociali in termini di governance, assegnando loro un rating ESG che va da A (rating migliore) a G (rating peggiore), in modo da ottenere una valutazione più globale dei rischi.

1. Il portafoglio ha applicato costantemente la seguente politica di esclusione di Amundi: - Esclusioni legali di armi controverse - Aziende che contravvengono gravemente e ripetutamente a uno o più dei 10 principi del Global Compact (UN Global Compac), senza misure correttive credibili; - Le esclusioni settoriali del gruppo Amundi su carbone e tabacco (i dettagli di questa politica sono disponibili nella Politica di Investimento Responsabile di Amundi disponibile sul sito www.amundi.fr)

2. Non sono stati effettuati investimenti in emittenti con rating F o G. Per gli emittenti il cui rating è stato abbassato a F o G, i titoli già presenti in portafoglio sono stati venduti nei tempi previsti dal prospetto e tenendo conto degli interessi finanziari dei detentori.

3. Il punteggio ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è stato costantemente superiore al punteggio ESG medio ponderato dell'universo di investimento del fondo dopo aver eliminato il 20% degli emittenti peggiori.

4. Il fondo ha privilegiato gli emittenti che sono leader nel loro settore di attività secondo i criteri ESG identificati dal team di analisti extra-finanziari della società di gestione (approccio "best in class"). Ad eccezione delle esclusioni di cui sopra, tutti i settori economici sono rappresentati in questo approccio e l'UCI può quindi essere esposto ad alcuni settori controversi.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.594 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.185 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.622 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.179 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e

- Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
- Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
- Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.

- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Quali sono stati i principali investimenti di questo prodotto finanziario?

L'elenco comprende gli investimenti che costituiscono la quota maggiore degli investimenti del prodotto finanziario durante il periodo di riferimento, ossia: Dal 01/07/2024 al 30/06/2025

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti -spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.02% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 3.30%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 1.44%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 49.49% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 6.63%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.150 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.168 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.185 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.171 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Quali sono stati i principali investimenti di questo prodotto finanziario?

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 43.64% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.
La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.48% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.15% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.07%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.04%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 37.55% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 5.61%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 51.53% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.228 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.185 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.292 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.179 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.94%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.48%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 41.32% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 9.08%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI WORLD Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.697 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.185 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.644 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.179 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.04% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 2.54%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 1.51%.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 55.86% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 6.57%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: ____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 66.29% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento Topix Net Total Return Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.199 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.224 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.131 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.280 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 39.10% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 27.20%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 69.61% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Il Comparto ha promosso le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando a ottenere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello dell'MSCI World Climate Paris Aligned Net USD Index (il "Benchmark"). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Comparto e del Benchmark, la performance ESG è stata valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ESG ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Inoltre, il Comparto mirava a ridurre l'intensità carbonica del proprio portafoglio allineando l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio a quella del Benchmark.

Il Benchmark è un indice di mercato ampio che valuta e include i propri componenti sulla base di caratteristiche ambientali e risulta pertanto allineato alle caratteristiche ambientali (ossia la riduzione dell'intensità carbonica) promosse dal Comparto.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG del Benchmark del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.503 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.013 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio che viene calcolata come media del portafoglio ponderata per gli asset e confrontata con l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio ponderata per gli asset del Benchmark. Di conseguenza, i titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente bassa avevano una maggiore probabilità di essere selezionati nel portafoglio rispetto ai titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente alta.

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 55.75
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 64.97

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.522 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato del Benchmark era 0.012 (D). Alla fine del periodo precedente l'intensità di carbonio media ponderata del portafoglio era 55.00 e l'indice di riferimento medio ponderato dell'intensità di carbonio era 66.13

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 1.87% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE.
L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. [1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.03% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 2.97%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 1.70%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 57.45% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 10.28%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

L'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile viene raggiunto allineando gli obiettivi di riduzione dell'impronta di carbonio del fondo all'indice MSCI World Climate Paris Aligned Net USD. L'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio viene calcolata come media del portafoglio ponderata per gli asset e confrontata con l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio ponderata per gli asset dell'Indice.

Di conseguenza, i titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente bassa hanno una maggiore probabilità di essere selezionati nel portafoglio rispetto ai titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente alta. Inoltre, il fondo esclude le società sulla base di comportamenti e (o) prodotti controversi, in conformità alla politica di investimento responsabile.

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 55.75.
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 64.97.

- In che modo l'indice designato differisce da un benchmark generale di mercato pertinente?

Un indice generale di mercato non valuta né include i suoi componenti in base alle caratteristiche ambientali e pertanto non è allineato alle caratteristiche ambientali.

L'indice utilizzato è un "Paris Aligned Benchmark" che incorpora obiettivi specifici relativi alla riduzione delle emissioni e alla transizione verso un'economia a basse emissioni di carbonio attraverso la selezione e la ponderazione dei componenti sottostanti.

- Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto agli indicatori di sostenibilità per determinare l'allineamento del benchmark di riferimento alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove?

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.503 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.013 (D).

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 55.75.
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 64.97.

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Il Comparto promuove le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali, puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello dell'universo d'investimento. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Comparto e dell'Universo d'Investimento, la performance ESG è stata valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ESG ambientali, sociali e di governance. Ai fini di questa misurazione, l'universo d'investimento è definito come composto da titoli azionari europei quotati.

Inoltre, il Comparto mira a ridurre l'intensità carbonica del proprio portafoglio allineando l'intensità della sua impronta di carbonio all'MSCI Europe Climate Paris Aligned Index (EUR).
Questo indice è un indice di mercato ampio che valuta e include i propri componenti sulla base di caratteristiche ambientali e risulta pertanto allineato alle caratteristiche ambientali promosse dal Comparto, ossia una ridotta impronta di carbonio.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.330 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.828 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio che viene calcolata come media del portafoglio ponderata per gli asset e confrontata con l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio ponderata per gli asset del Benchmark. Di conseguenza, i titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente bassa avevano una maggiore probabilità di essere selezionati nel portafoglio rispetto ai titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente alta.

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 61.84
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 135.18

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 1.347 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.798 (C) fine del periodo precedente l'intensità di carbonio media ponderata del portfolio era 68.05 Alla fine del periodo precedente l'intensità di carbonio media ponderata del portfolio era 77.24.

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Quali sono stati i principali investimenti di questo prodotto finanziario?

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 79.53% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 3.17% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.01% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 4.84%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 1.09%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 68.25% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 8.10%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

L'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile viene raggiunto allineando gli obiettivi di riduzione dell'impronta di carbonio del fondo all'indice MSCI Europe Climate Paris Aligned Index (EUR). L'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio viene calcolata come media del portafoglio ponderata per gli asset e confrontata con l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio ponderata per gli asset dell'Indice.

Di conseguenza, i titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente bassa hanno una maggiore probabilità di essere selezionati nel portafoglio rispetto ai titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente alta. Inoltre, il fondo esclude le società sulla base di comportamenti e (o) prodotti controversi, in conformità alla politica di investimento responsabile.

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 61.84.
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 135.18.

- In che modo l'indice designato differisce da un benchmark generale di mercato pertinente?

Un indice generale di mercato non valuta né include i suoi componenti in base alle caratteristiche ambientali e pertanto non è allineato alle caratteristiche ambientali.

L'indice utilizzato è un "Paris Aligned Benchmark" che incorpora obiettivi specifici relativi alla riduzione delle emissioni e alla transizione verso un'economia a basse emissioni di carbonio attraverso la selezione e la ponderazione dei componenti sottostanti.

- Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto agli indicatori di sostenibilità per determinare l'allineamento del benchmark di riferimento alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove?

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.330 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.828 (C).

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 61.84.
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 135.18.

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI World All Countries (ACWI) (Net Dividend) Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Comparto e del Benchmark, la performance ESG è valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ESG ambientali, sociali e di governance. Il Benchmark è un ampio indice che non valuta o include componenti in base alle caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e pertanto non è concepito per essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal Comparto. Non è stato designato alcun Benchmark ESG di riferimento

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.023 (D)
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'indice di riferimento è -0.168 (D)

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 0.197 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'indice di riferimento era -0.171 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla Tassonomia era del 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 34.89% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 11.67%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati.

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.300 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.476 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.137 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.479 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 20.75% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 3.10%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.100 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.459 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.107 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.433 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

L'elenco comprende gli investimenti che costituiscono la quota maggiore degli investimenti del prodotto finanziario durante il periodo di riferimento, ossia: Dal 01/07/2024 al 30/06/2025

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 41.06% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.
La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

L'asset allocation descrive la quota di investimenti in asset specifici.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.01% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.01% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 26.16% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 14.89%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.259 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.419 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.359 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.386 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 26.42% alla fine del periodo.

Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 8.16%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Per investimento sostenibile si intende un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 41.18% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.176 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.459 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.167 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.433 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG (Amundi ESG Regulatory Statement) nel sito www.amundi.lu

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.

  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:

  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. [1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 26.22% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 14.95%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento RUSSELL 1000 VALUE INDEX. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.162 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.476 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.020 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era - 0.479 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.03% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

 Ai fini dei grafici di cui sopra, per "obbligazioni sovrane" si intendono tutte le esposizioni sovrane.*

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.03% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 22.77% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 4.92%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento S&P 500 (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.224 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.459 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.258 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.433 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.13% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.13%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.13%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 23.55% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 12.45%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI CHINA A ONSHORE NR USD INDEX. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.424 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.946 (E).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Questo è il primo rapporto periodico del SFDR redatto per questo comparto.

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Questo è il primo rapporto periodico del SFDR redatto per questo comparto.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 22.77% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 8.09%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

Questo prodotto non dispone di un Benchmark ESG.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

- [ ] Si
- [x] No

- [ ] Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____
  - [ ] in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
  - [ ] in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
- [x] Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 44.08% di investimenti sostenibili
  - [ ] con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
  - [x] con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
  - [x] con un obiettivo sociale
- [ ] Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____
- [ ] Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI MSCI ASIA EX JAPAN (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.068 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.016 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.017 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.086 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO_2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era del 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 27.81% alla fine del periodo.

Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 16.27%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No

☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____

- ☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
- ☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____

☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 29.65% di investimenti sostenibili

- ☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
- ☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla Tassonomia UE
- ☒ con un obiettivo sociale

☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo benchmark MSCI China A Onshore NR USD Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e il benchmark, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Il benchmark è un ampio indice di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG del benchmark del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.538 (E).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.946 (E).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.608 (E) e il rating ESG medio ponderato del benchmark era -1.133 (E).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 18.52% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 11.13%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo benchmark MSCI CHINA 10/40 Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e il benchmark, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Il benchmark è un ampio indice di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo.
Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG del benchmark del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.367 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.529 (E).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.468 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato del benchmark era -0.732 (E).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era del 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 23.28% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 13.78%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo benchmark MSCI EM Europe & Middle East 10/40 Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e il benchmark, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Il benchmark è un ampio indice di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo.
Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG del benchmark del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.074 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.190 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.024 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato del benchmark era -0.3 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.58% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.38% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 2.10%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era del 0.12%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia è stata pari al 27.65% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 2.69%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 54.13% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE

	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EM (EMERGING MARKETS) (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.394 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.022 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.356 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.099 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 54.13% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.
La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.09% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

[X] Sì:

[ ] In gas fossile [X] In energia nucleare

[ ] No

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.10%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 45.32% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 8.73%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 46.19% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EM (EMERGING MARKETS). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance. L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.122 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.022 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.103 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.099 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 46.19% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.
La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.02% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della Tassonomia UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla Tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.04%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la Tassonomia UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 33.63% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 12.54%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 48.83% di investimenti sostenibili

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EM (EMERGING MARKETS) EX CHINA (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.275 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.159 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era 0.193 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.097 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:

  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 48.83% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.
La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.02% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della tassonomia dell'UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 34.69% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di tassonomia dell'UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della tassonomia dell'UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 14.12%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 48.04% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EMERGING MARKETS FREE Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo.
Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.135 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.022 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 0.130 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.099 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti legati alla sostenibilità?

Il fondo ha investito il 48.04% in investimenti legati alla sostenibilità.

- Qual è stata l'allocazione degli asset?

#1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario utilizzati per rispettare le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal prodotto finanziario.
#2 Altri comprende i restanti investimenti del prodotto finanziario che non sono allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali, né sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.
La categoria #1 Allineati con caratteristiche A/S comprende:
- La sottocategoria #1A Sostenibili contempla gli investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali o sociali.
- La sottocategoria #1B Altre caratteristiche A/S contempla gli investimenti allineati alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che non sono considerati investimenti sostenibili.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.01% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della tassonomia dell'UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.01% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.10%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.02%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 36.95% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di tassonomia dell'UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della tassonomia dell'UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 11.08%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EM LATIN AMERICA (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.267 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 0.181 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 0.217 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 0.158 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO_2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.10% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla tassonomia dell'UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.01%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 42.76% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di tassonomia dell'UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della tassonomia dell'UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 3.33%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 49.11% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Il Comparto ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello dell'MSCI Emerging Markets Climate Paris Aligned Index (il "Benchmark") e del proprio universo d'investimento. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Comparto, del Benchmark e dell'universo d'investimento, la performance ESG è stata valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ESG ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è stato definito come l'MSCI Emerging Markets Index, che non costituisce un benchmark ESG. Inoltre, il Comparto mirava a ridurre l'intensità carbonica del proprio portafoglio allineando l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio a quella del Benchmark. Il Benchmark è un indice di mercato ampio che valuta e include i propri componenti in base a caratteristiche ambientali ed è pertanto allineato alle caratteristiche ambientali promosse dal Comparto.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG del Benchmark del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.367 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.084 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio che viene calcolata come media del portafoglio ponderata per gli asset e confrontata con l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio ponderata per gli asset del Benchmark. Di conseguenza, i titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente bassa avevano una maggiore probabilità di essere selezionati nel portafoglio rispetto ai titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente alta.

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 98.84
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 110.55

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 0.324 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato del Benchmark era 0.044 (D). Alla fine del periodo precedente l'intensità di carbonio media ponderata del portfolio era 113.98 Alla fine del periodo precedente l'intensità di carbonio media ponderata del portfolio era 128.61.

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.07% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della tassonomia dell'UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Poiché non esiste una metodologia adeguata per determinare l'allineamento delle obbligazioni sovrane* alla tassonomia, il primo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia in relazione a tutti gli investimenti del prodotto finanziario comprese le obbligazioni sovrane, mentre il secondo grafico mostra l'allineamento alla tassonomia solo in relazione agli investimenti del prodotto finanziario diversi dalle obbligazioni sovrane.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.01%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 40.15% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 8.90%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati.

Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto all'indice di riferimento?

Gli indici di riferimento sono indici atti a misurare se il prodotto finanziario rispetta le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove.

L'obiettivo di investimento sostenibile viene raggiunto allineando gli obiettivi di riduzione dell'impronta di carbonio del fondo all'indice MSCI Emerging Markets Climate Paris Aligned. L'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio viene calcolata come media del portafoglio ponderata per gli asset e confrontata con l'intensità dell'impronta di carbonio ponderata per gli asset dell'Indice.

Di conseguenza, i titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente bassa hanno una maggiore probabilità di essere selezionati nel portafoglio rispetto ai titoli con un'impronta ambientale relativamente alta. Inoltre, il fondo esclude le società sulla base di comportamenti e (o) prodotti controversi, in conformità alla politica di investimento responsabile.

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 98.84.
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 110.56

- In che modo l'indice designato differisce da un benchmark generale di mercato pertinente?

Un indice generale di mercato non valuta né include i suoi componenti in base alle caratteristiche ambientali e pertanto non è allineato alle caratteristiche ambientali. L'indice utilizzato è un "Paris Aligned Benchmark" che incorpora obiettivi specifici relativi alla riduzione delle emissioni e alla transizione verso un'economia a basse emissioni di carbonio attraverso la selezione e la ponderazione dei componenti sottostanti.

- Come si è comportato questo prodotto finanziario rispetto agli indicatori di sostenibilità per determinare l'allineamento del benchmark di riferimento alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali che promuove?

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.367 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.084 (D).

- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del portafoglio è 98.84.
- L'intensità media ponderata dell'impronta di carbonio del Benchmark è 110.56

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento 80% MSCI EM (EMERGING MARKETS) + 20% MSCI FRONTIER MARKETS Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.023 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è -0.079 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 0.040 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era -0.130 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.14% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della tassonomia dell'UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

☐ Sì:

☐ In gas fossile ☐ In energia nucleare

☒ No

I grafici che seguono mostrano in verde la percentuale di investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. [1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla tassonomia dell'UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.14%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.01%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 29.2% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di tassonomia dell'UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della tassonomia dell'UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 7.10%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Il Comparto non ha rispettato l'impegno di avere almeno il 75% degli investimenti allineato alle caratteristiche A/S e non si era impegnato ad avere una quota minima di investimenti sostenibili, a causa della sospensione del calcolo del NAV nel contesto dell'invasione dell'Ucraina da parte della Russia.

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo benchmark MSCI RUSSIA 10/40 (OFFICIAL). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e il benchmark, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

Il benchmark è un ampio indice di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo.
Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG del benchmark del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.529 (E).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -1.943 (F).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio era -0.511 (E) e il rating ESG medio ponderato del benchmark era -1.862 (F).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Quali sono stati i principali investimenti di questo prodotto finanziario?

L'elenco comprende gli investimenti che costituiscono la quota maggiore degli investimenti del prodotto finanziario durante il periodo di riferimento, ossia: Dal 01/07/2024 al 30/06/2025

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla tassonomia dell'UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Questo prodotto non si è impegnato ad effettuare investimenti sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale nel corso del periodo.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 8.49%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Il Comparto promuove le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando a ottenere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello dell'MSCI India 10/40 Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Comparto e del Benchmark, la performance ESG è valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ESG ambientali, sociali e di governance. Il Benchmark è un ampio indice che non valuta o include componenti in base alle caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e pertanto non è concepito per essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal Comparto. Non è stato designato alcun Benchmark ESG di riferimento

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è -0.066 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'indice di riferimento è -0.289 (D)

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità

- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale

- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era -0.117 (D) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'indice di riferimento era -0.38 (D).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 0.14% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della tassonomia dell'UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Il prodotto finanziario ha investito in attività legate al gas fossile e/o all'energia nucleare conformi alla Tassonomia UE[1]?

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.14%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 0.00%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 15.95% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di tassonomia dell'UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della tassonomia dell'UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 22.11%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

Questo prodotto finanziario aveva un obiettivo di investimento sostenibile?

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 38.11% di investimenti sostenibili
☐ in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☐ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
☐ in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE	☒ con un obiettivo ambientale in attività economiche che non sono considerate ecosostenibili conformemente alla tassonomia dell'UE
	☒ con un obiettivo sociale
☐ Ha effettuato degli sostenibili con un obiettivo sociale: _____	☐ Ha promosso caratteristiche di A/S, ma non ha effettuato alcun investimento sostenibile

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Il Comparto ha promosso le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando a ottenere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello dell'S&P BSE 500 Total Return Index (il "Benchmark"). Nel determinare lo score ESG del Comparto e del Benchmark, la performance ESG è stata valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ESG ambientali, sociali e di governance. Il Benchmark è un ampio indice che non valuta o include componenti in base alle caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e pertanto non è concepito per essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal Comparto. Non è stato designato alcun Benchmark ESG di riferimento

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 0.111 (D).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'indice di riferimento è -0.294 (D).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Questo è il primo rapporto periodico del SFDR redatto per questo comparto.

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere una diversità del Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre società del relativo settore; e

  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas a effetto serra corrispondenti alla migliore prestazione.

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Nel periodo di riferimento, il fondo ha investito lo 0.00% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla Tassonomia UE.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.00% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 0.00%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

[1] Le attività legate ai gas fossili e/o al nucleare saranno conformi alla tassonomia UE solo se contribuiranno a limitare i cambiamenti climatici ("mitigazione dei cambiamenti climatici") e non danneggeranno in modo significativo alcun obiettivo della Tassonomia UE. I criteri completi per le attività economiche legate al gas fossile e all'energia nucleare conformi alla tassonomia dell'UE sono stabiliti nel Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1214 della Commissione.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Questo è il primo rapporto periodico del SFDR redatto per questo comparto.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 15.43% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di tassonomia dell'UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della tassonomia dell'UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

La quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 22.68%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati.

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

La Tassonomia UE è un sistema di classificazione istituito dal Regolamento (UE) 2020/852, che stabilisce un elenco di attività economiche ecosostenibili. Tale regolamento non definisce un elenco di attività economiche socialmente sostenibili. Gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale potrebbero essere allineati o no alla tassonomia.

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.157 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 1.072 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- … e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 1.109 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 1.03 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo ad alcun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.

Per ulteriori dettagli su come vengono presi in considerazione gli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi, si rimanda al Disclosure Statement di Amundi Sustainable Finance disponibile sul sito www.amundi.com.

Per conformarsi alla Tassonomia UE, i criteri per il gas fossile includono limitazioni alle emissioni e il passaggio a energia completamente rinnovabile o a combustibili a basso contenuto di carbonio entro la fine del 2035. Per quanto riguarda l'energia nucleare, i criteri includono norme complete sulla sicurezza e sulla gestione delle scorie

Le attività abilitanti consentono direttamente ad altre attività di apportare un contributo sostanziale a un obiettivo ambientale.

Le attività di transizione sono attività per le quali non sono ancora disponibili alternative a basse emissioni di carbonio e che presentano, tra l'altro, livelli di emissione di gas

Le attività allineate alla tassonomia sono espresse in percentuale di:
- turnover quota di entrate da attività verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.
- spese in conto capitale (CapEx) investimenti verdi effettuati dalle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti, ad es. per la transizione verso un'economia verde.
- spese operative (OpEx) attività operative verdi delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti.

In quale misura gli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale erano allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

Il fondo promuove sia caratteristiche ambientali che sociali. Sebbene il fondo non si sia impegnato ad effettuare investimenti allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE, nel periodo di riferimento ha investito lo 4.81% in investimenti sostenibili allineati alla tassonomia dell'UE. Questi investimenti hanno contribuito agli obiettivi di mitigazione del cambiamento climatico della tassonomia dell'UE. L'allineamento delle società partecipate ai suddetti obiettivi della tassonomia dell'UE viene misurato utilizzando i dati relativi al fatturato (o ai ricavi) e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond.
La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- Qual è stata la quota di investimenti effettuati in attività transitorie e abilitanti?

Al 30/06/2025, utilizzando come indicatore i dati relativi al fatturato e/o all'utilizzo dei proventi dei green bond, la quota di investimenti del fondo in attività transitorie era pari allo 0.22% e la quota di investimenti in attività abilitanti era pari al 4.53%. La percentuale di allineamento degli investimenti del fondo con la tassonomia dell'UE non è stata verificata dai revisori del fondo o da terzi.

- In che modo la quota di investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia UE è stata confrontata con i periodi di riferimento precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente percentuale di investimenti con allineamento alla tassonomia era dello 2.05%.

sono investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non tengono conto dei criteri per le attività economiche ecosostenibili ai sensi del Regolamento (UE) 2020/852.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale che non sono allineati alla Tassonomia UE?

La quota di investimenti sostenibili con obiettivi ambientali non allineati alla tassonomia era pari al 64.61% alla fine del periodo.
Ciò è dovuto al fatto che alcuni emittenti sono considerati investimenti sostenibili ai sensi del regolamento SFDR, ma svolgono una parte delle attività che non sono in linea con gli standard di Tassonomia UE o per i quali non sono ancora disponibili i dati per effettuare una valutazione della Tassonomia UE.

Qual è stata la quota di investimenti socialmente sostenibili?

di investimenti socialmente sostenibili alla fine del periodo era del 5.77%.

Quali investimenti erano compresi nella categoria "#2 Altri", qual era il loro scopo ed esistevano garanzie minime di salvaguardia ambientale o sociale?

"#2 Altri" include la liquidità e altri strumenti detenuti per la gestione del rischio di liquidità e di portafoglio. Per le obbligazioni e le azioni prive di rating, sono in atto salvaguardie ambientali e sociali minime attraverso uno screening controverso rispetto ai Principi del Global Compact delle Nazioni Unite. Inoltre, possono esservi inclusi titoli privi di rating ESG per cui non sono disponibili i dati necessari a misurare il conseguimento di caratteristiche ambientali o sociali.

Che azioni sono state intraprese per soddisfare le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali nel periodo di riferimento?

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità sono costantemente disponibili nel sistema di gestione del portafoglio, consentendo ai gestori del portafoglio di valutare l'impatto delle loro decisioni di investimento.

Questi indicatori sono incorporati nel quadro di controllo di AMUNDI, con responsabilità distribuite tra il primo livello di controlli eseguiti dagli stessi team di investimento e il secondo livello di controlli eseguiti dai team di Rischio, che monitorano la conformità alle caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse dal fondo su base continuativa.

Inoltre, la Politica di investimento responsabile di AMUNDI definisce un approccio attivo basato sull'engagement che promuove il dialogo con le società beneficiarie dell'investimento, comprese quelle presenti nel portafoglio di questo prodotto. Il nostro Annual Engagement Report, disponibile su https://about.amundi.com/esg-documentation, fornisce un resoconto dettagliato di questo impegno e dei suoi risultati

Caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali

Si intende per investimento sostenibile un investimento in un'attività economica che contribuisce a un obiettivo ambientale o sociale, purché tale investimento non arrechi un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo ambientale o sociale e l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti segua prassi di buona governance.

☐ Si	☒ No
☐ Ha effettuato degli investimenti sostenibili con un obiettivo ambientale: _____	☒ Ha promosso caratteristiche ambientali/sociali (A/S) sostenibili e pur non avendo come obiettivo un investimento sostenibile, ha avuto una quota del 67.67% di investimenti sostenibili

In che misura sono state soddisfatte le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali promosse da questo prodotto finanziario?

Nel corso dell'esercizio, il prodotto ha promosso costantemente le caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali puntando ad avere un punteggio ESG superiore a quello del suo universo d'investimento MSCI EMU Index. Nel determinare lo score ESG del Prodotto e l'universo d'investimento ESG, la performance ESG è stata costantemente valutata confrontando la performance media di un titolo rispetto al settore dell'emittente del titolo, in relazione a ciascuna delle tre caratteristiche ambientali, sociali e di governance.

L'universo d'investimento è un ampio universo di mercato che non valuta o include componenti basate su caratteristiche ambientali e/o sociali e non è pertanto destinato ad essere coerente con le caratteristiche promosse dal fondo. Non è stato definito alcun benchmark ESG.

Gli indicatori di sostenibilità misurano in che modo sono rispettate le caratteristiche ambientali o sociali promosse del prodotto finanziario.

- Come si sono comportati gli indicatori di sostenibilità?

Amundi ha sviluppato un proprio processo di rating ESG interno basato sull'approccio "Best-in-class". I rating adattati a ciascun settore di attività mirano alla valutazione delle dinamiche in cui operano le aziende.

L'indicatore di sostenibilità utilizzato è il punteggio ESG del prodotto, il quale è misurato rispetto al punteggio ESG dell'Universo di Investimento del prodotto.

Alla fine del periodo:

- Il rating ESG medio ponderato del portafoglio è 1.085 (C).
- Il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG è 1.072 (C).

Il Rating ESG di Amundi utilizzato per determinare il punteggio ESG è un punteggio di tipo quantitativo espresso in sette gradi, che vanno da A (universo dei punteggi migliori) a G (punteggi peggiori). Nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi, i titoli appartenenti all'elenco di esclusione corrispondono a un G. Per gli emittenti societari, la performance ESG viene valutata a livello globale e a livello di criteri pertinenti, confrontandola con la performance media del proprio settore, attraverso la combinazione delle tre dimensioni ESG:

- Dimensione ambientale: esamina la capacità degli emittenti di controllare il proprio impatto ambientale diretto e indiretto, limitando il consumo di energia, riducendo le emissioni a effetto serra, combattendo l'esaurimento delle risorse e proteggendo la biodiversità.
- Dimensione sociale: misura il modo in cui un emittente opera su due concetti distinti: la strategia dell'emittente per sviluppare il proprio capitale umano e il rispetto dei diritti umani in generale;
- Dimensione della governance: Valuta la capacità dell'emittente di garantire le basi per un quadro di corporate governance efficace e di generare valore nel lungo termine.

La metodologia applicata dal rating ESG di Amundi si avvale di 38 criteri generici (comuni a tutte le società, indipendentemente dalla loro attività) o settoriali, ponderati in base al settore e considerati in termini di impatto sulla reputazione, sull'efficienza operativa e sulla regolamentazione relativa a un emittente. I rating ESG di Amundi possono essere espressi a livello globale sulle tre dimensioni E, S e G o a livello individuale su qualsiasi fattore ambientale o sociale.

- ... e rispetto ai periodi precedenti?

Alla fine del periodo precedente il rating ESG medio ponderato del portfolio era 1.057 (C) e il rating ESG medio ponderato dell'universo d'investimento ESG era 1.03 (C).

- Quali erano gli obiettivi degli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario intendeva parzialmente realizzare e in che modo l'investimento sostenibile ha contribuito a tali obiettivi?

Gli investimenti sostenibili hanno come obiettivo l'investimento in società beneficiarie che cerchino di rispettare due criteri:

1. seguire le migliori prassi ambientali e sociali; e
2. evitare di produrre beni o prestare servizi che arrechino danni ambientali e sociali.

Per poter affermare che l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti contribuisce al predetto obiettivo deve trattarsi di una società "best performer" nel proprio settore di attività con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante.

La definizione di "best performer" si basa sull'esclusiva metodologia ESG di Amundi per la misurazione della performance ESG di un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti. Per poter essere considerata "best performer", un'impresa beneficiaria di investimenti deve ottenere un rating compreso tra i migliori tre (A, B o C su una scala di rating che va da A a G) nel proprio settore con riferimento ad almeno un fattore ambientale o sociale rilevante. I fattori ambientali e sociali rilevanti sono identificati a livello del settore. L'identificazione dei fattori rilevanti si basa sul quadro di analisi ESG di Amundi che combina dati extrafinanziari e analisi qualitativa del settore associato con le tematiche della sostenibilità. I fattori identificati come rilevanti sono quelli da cui risulta un contributo al punteggio ESG complessivo che sia superiore al 10%. Per il settore energetico per esempio i fattori rilevanti sono: emissioni e energia, biodiversità e inquinamento, salute e sicurezza, comunità locali e diritti umani. Per una panoramica più completa sui predetti settori e fattori, consultare la dichiarazione regolativa di Amundi in materia ESG sul sito www.amundi.lu.

Per contribuire ai predetti obiettivi, l'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non dovrebbe avere un'esposizione significativa verso settori di attività (quali, per esempio, tabacco, armi, gioco d'azzardo, carbone, aviazione, produzione di carni, produzione di fertilizzanti e pesticidi, produzione di plastica monouso) incompatibili con i criteri sopra indicati.

La natura sostenibile di un investimento è valutata a livello dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti.

I principali effetti negativi sono gli effetti negativi più significativi delle decisioni di investimento sui fattori di sostenibilità relativi a problematiche ambientali, sociali e concernenti il personale, il rispetto dei diritti umani e le questioni relative alla lotta alla corruzione attiva e passiva.

- In che modo gli investimenti sostenibili che il prodotto finanziario ha inteso in parte realizzare non hanno arrecato un danno significativo a nessun obiettivo di investimento sostenibile sotto il profilo ambientale o sociale?

Per garantire che gli investimenti sostenibili non arrechino un danno significativo ("DNSH"), Amundi si avvale di due filtri:

Il primo filtro DSNH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, delle RTS (Regulatory Technical Standards, norme tecniche di regolamentazione) quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi (per es. intensità delle emissioni di gas serra da parte delle imprese beneficiarie degli investimenti) attraverso una combinazione di indicatori (per es. l'intensità carbonica) e specifiche soglie o regole (per es. che il livello dell'intensità carbonica dell'impresa beneficiaria degli investimenti non rientri nell'ultimo decile del settore).

Oltre gli specifici indicatori relativi ai Principali Effetti Negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità contemplati nel primo filtro, Amundi ha definito un secondo filtro, che non tiene conto degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi sopra descritti, al fine di verificare che la società non abbia un rendimento negativo da un punto di vista complessivo ambientale o sociale rispetto ad altre aziende nel suo stesso settore, cosa che corrisponde a un punteggio ambientale o sociale superiore o uguale a E nella scala di rating ESG di Amundi.

- In che modo si è tenuto conto degli indicatori degli effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?
  Gli indicatori relativi agli effetti negativi sono stati presi in considerazione come riportato nel primo filtro "non arrecano un danno significativo" (DNSH), sopra descritto.
  Il primo filtro DNSH si basa sul monitoraggio degli indicatori obbligatori concernenti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, quando sono disponibili dati affidabili e significativi attraverso la combinazione dei seguenti indicatori e specifiche soglie o regole:
  - Avere un'intensità di CO2 che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore (applicabile solo a settori ad alta intensità), e
  - Avere un grado di diversità nel Consiglio di Amministrazione che non rientri nell'ultimo decile rispetto alle altre aziende nel medesimo settore, e
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti le condizioni di lavoro e i diritti umani.
  - Non essere implicata in controversie riguardanti biodiversità e inquinamento.

- Gli investimenti sostenibili erano allineati alle linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e ai Principi guida delle Nazioni Unite su imprese e diritti umani? Descrizione particolareggiata:
  Si, le Linee guida OCSE destinate alle imprese multinazionali e i Principi Guida ONU su imprese e diritti umani sono integrati nella metodologia di rating ESG di Amundi. Il nostro meccanismo esclusivo di rating valuta gli emittenti servendosi dei dati disponibili provenienti dai nostri fornitori di dati. Per esempio, il modello ha un criterio dedicato denominato "Coinvolgimento della Comunità e Diritti Umani" che viene applicato a tutti i settori oltre ad altri criteri correlati ai diritti umani, tra i quali catene di fornitura socialmente responsabili, condizioni di lavoro e relazioni sindacali. Inoltre, effettuiamo il monitoraggio delle controversie con frequenza almeno trimestrale includendo aziende identificate per la violazione di diritti umani. Nel caso in cui emerga una controversia, gli analisti stimano la situazione, assegnano un punteggio alla controversia (servendosi della nostra metodologia esclusiva) e stabiliscono il modo migliore di agire. I punteggi relativi alle controversie vengono aggiornati trimestralmente per tenere traccia dell'andamento e delle misure adottate per porvi rimedio.

La Tassonomia UE stabilisce il principio "non arreca un danno significativo", in base al quale gli investimenti allineati alla Tassonomia non dovrebbero arrecare un danno significativo agli obiettivi della Tassonomia UE, ed è accompagnata da criteri specifici dell'UE.

Il principio di "non arreca un danno significativo" si applica solo agli investimenti sottostanti il prodotto finanziario che tengono conto dei criteri dell'UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale. Gli investimenti sottostanti la parte restante di questo prodotto finanziario non tengono conto dei criteri UE per le attività economiche sostenibili dal punto di vista ambientale.

Qualsiasi altro investimento sostenibile non deve inoltre arrecare danni significativi ad alcun obiettivo ambientale o sociale.

Questo prodotto finanziario ha preso in considerazione i principali effetti negativi sui fattori di sostenibilità?

Il prodotto prende in considerazione tutti i Principali Effetti Negativi di cui all'Allegato 1, Tabella 1, del Regolamento delegato (UE) 2022/1288, applicabile alla strategia del prodotto e si basa su una combinazione di politiche di esclusione (normative e settoriali), impegno e approcci di voto:

- Esclusione: Amundi ha definito regole di esclusione basate su previsioni normative, su attività e su settori, le quali coprono alcuni degli indicatori chiave relativi agli effetti negativi sulla sostenibilità elencati dal Regolamento sull'Informativa (Disclosure).
- Integrazione dei fattori ESG: Amundi ha adottato le norme minime di integrazione ESG applicate automaticamente ai propri fondi di tipo aperto gestiti attivamente (esclusione di emittenti con rating pari a G e punteggio medio ponderato ESG migliore di quello del benchmark applicabile). I 38 criteri utilizzati nell'approccio di rating ESG di Amundi sono stati ideati in modo da tenere conto anche degli effetti chiave sui fattori di sostenibilità, e la qualità delle azioni di mitigazione intraprese è presa in considerazione anche a tale riguardo.
- Engagement: il coinvolgimento (engagement) degli emittenti è un processo continuo e mirato che cerca di influire sulle attività e sui comportamenti delle società beneficiarie degli investimenti. L'obiettivo delle attività di engagement può ricadere in due categorie: coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare le modalità di integrazione della dimensione ambientale e sociale, coinvolgimento dell'emittente per migliorare l'impatto delle attività di quest'ultimo sugli aspetti ambientali, sociali e correlati ai diritti umani o sulle altre tematiche della sostenibilità che siano rilevanti per la società e l'economia globale.
- Voto: la politica di voto di Amundi risponde a un'analisi olistica completa degli aspetti che, nel lungo periodo, possono influire sulla creazione del valore ivi incluse le tematiche ESG rilevanti. Per ulteriori informazioni, è possibile consultare la Politica di Voto di Amundi.
- Monitoraggio delle controversie: Amundi ha elaborato un sistema per tracciare le controversie che si basa su tre fornitori di dati indipendenti per il monitoraggio sistematico delle controversie e della loro gravità. Questo approccio quantitativo è quindi integrato da una valutazione approfondita, da parte degli analisti ESG, di ogni controversia grave e dal riesame periodico della sua evoluzione. Questo approccio viene applicato a tutti i fondi Amundi.
